SUMMARY

SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1908.

Leading Articles: The Turkish Constitution... The Marathon Race The Irish Universities Bill Special Articles: The Marathon Race: Map of the Route National Competition of Schools of Art 10 The Naval Manœuvres The Jubilee of Jewish Emancipation ... 16 Australian Ideals (IV.): The Growth of an Australian Sentiment The Charm of Flowers in Switzerland ... Correspondence: Woman Suffrage (Mrs. Humphry Ward) 12 The Cost of Medical Education (Principal Headlam) ... ••• The Constitution Congress (M. Yves Guyot and others) Postal Servants (Sir Charles Dalrymple) 12

Children (Bishop of Stepney) ...

Bishops and Motor-Cars ...

The Breathing of Ozone ...

The Break-up of the Inland Revenue

Country Holidays for Clerkenwell

The Queen.

Department

Marathon race. (p. 8)

THE COURT.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Parliament. the Irish Universities Bill was brought to a con- entirely overshadowed by the Marathon race, to reception. (p. 7) clusion. The principal amendment discussed, witness the conclusion of which an enormous Serious Riots in Bombay. though there were many others, was that of Dr. | crowd assembled. The competitors, 55 in Hazel, requiring as a condition of graduation two Windsor Castle at 233 p.m. at a signal given popular manifestations of sympathy for elicited interesting speeches from Mr. Butcher along the route of 26 miles was witnessed and Mr. Birrell. The sitting was shorter than by large assemblages of spectators. British had been anticipated, and ended at 5 45. (pp. 5 runners led during the first few miles, but

Service in Memory of Wolfe.

Greenwich Parish Church in commemoration of the Stadium considerably in front of every one General Wolfe, the hero of the victory at Quebec else, but in a terrible state of exhaustion, and he senting the King, representatives of the Navy third. A protest was entered against Dorando defiant. (p. 7) and Army, of regiments which served under on the ground that he had received assistance, and Tramway Strike in Sydney. Wolfe at Quebec, and many well-known -At the dinner given last night to official persons personages. The sermon was preached by the attending the Games at the Grafton-galleries on Archbishop of Toronto. (p. 10) Honour for Earl Grey.

Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada, Majesty desired to present a special cup to has been appointed a member of the Privy Dorando. (pp. 8 and 9) Council. (p. 12)

Wages in the Cotton Trade.

Instructing the general committee to take the reduction in wages. (p. 14)

Naval Appointments.

Rear-Admiral G. Le Clerc Egerton has been Challenge Cup. (p. 12) appointed Commander-in-Chief on the Cape of Cricket. Good Hope station, to succeed Vice-Admiral Sir E. S. Poë. Rear-Admiral W. B. Fisher has been appointed Rear-Admiral in the Atlantic Fleet, to succeed Rear-Admiral Sir J. R. Jellicoe. (p. 9) The Wesleyan Conference.

At yesterday's sitting of this conference at Tork, various appointments were made, and Kent scored 278 for five wickets in their second reports submitted on the oversight of Wesleyan innings.—Essex brought up their first innings prisoners and on the probationers' examination. total against Derbyshire at Leyton to 213, or 18

Water Storage and the Typhoid Bacillus.

tions to the Metropolitan Water Board, states, in At Brighton, Sussex, after raising their first a report recently presented to the Board, that it the closure, and then captured eight of their is possible, by certain comparatively easy tests, opponents' wickets for 187 runs.—Nottinghamshire to show that under storage a change has occurred | could only increase their first innings total against ? in river water, which could, in all probability, Gloucestershire at Nottingham to 129, or 46 in only have resulted from sustained storage, and arrear. In their second innings the visitors as the typhoid bacillus is concerned. (p. 4)

Large Charitable Bequests.

Under the will of Miss E. M. Hutchison, of The Liverpool Cup. Phillimore-gardens, W., who died on April 19, At the Liverpool Meeting yesterday the race left to charitable and religious institutions, and Joel's Dean Swift. (p. 15) the residue of the estate, of which the amount is Archery. not yet ascertained, is also left for charitable objects. (p. 13)

The City of London School.

annual prize-day of this school, and presented Rowing. the prizes. (p. 15)

Universal Peace Congress.

in London next Monday, is issued. (p. 15) The Crystal Palace.

At a meeting held yesterday at the Mansionhouse, the Lord Mayor presiding, a resolution was carried declaring that the preservation of the Crystal Palace and its grounds is a national concern. (p. 10)

Officers' Training.

General Sir Ian Hamilton, Commanding-in-Chief the Southern Command, has issued a special which he announces a special series of lectures and exercises with the object of assisting his commanders to carry his views into effect. (p. 9)

The Estate Market.

at the Estate Exchange, have amounted £138,513, compared with £121,377 in the corresponding week last year. (p. 18) The Law Courts.

In the House of Lords the Lord Chancellor and Lords Ashbourne, Macnaghten, and Atkinson gave judgment in an appeal of the Wood-green had instituted against one Joseph, the owner of a house in Parkhurst-road, Wood-green, to recover a sum of £49 10s., the cost of certain drainage works. The Court of Appeal had found for the defendant in the action, and their Lordships now affirmed this finding, and dismissed the appeal, with costs. (p. 3)

In the Court of Appeal, before the Master of the Rolls and Lords Justices Farwell and Kennedy, an appeal was heard from a judgment | declined. (p. 14) of the President of the Probate and Divorce Division, in an action in which one Morris | The Weather. Kutner, the half-brother of the late Harris Norman, of Cambridge, had claimed a grant of administration of the estate of the deceased. while the governors of Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge, propounded a will (found in the lining of a hat), which divided the property of the deceased between the hospital and Jewish chari-.The President admitted this will to probate. The plaintiff appealed, but their Lord- | The Quebec Tercentenary. ships now dismissed the appeal, and affirmed the decision of the Court below. (p. 3) Their Lordships heard an appeal from an award tenary celebration was a review of Regular Shipping, Weather, and Mails: of the County Court Judge of St. Helen's, Lancashire. A workman named Rowland, in the the British, French, and United States squadrons, while taking his dinner in his employer's stable. Abraham. The spectacle, which took place in CONTENTS. The bite set up blood-poisoning, and the man had brilliant weather, is described by our Special to have two joints of his finger amputated. He Correspondent as the most imposing and inspiring | Finance and Commerce: tion Act, and the County Court Judge made an award in his favour. The employer appealed, but After the review, the Prince presented to Lord their Lordships held that the decision of the Grey the sum of £90,000 which has been sub-Court below was right, and dismissed the appeal. scribed by British citizens in all parts of the Chief Justice, Mr. Justice Lawrance, and Mr. Quebec for the people of the Dominion. (p. 7) Justice Walton refused four applications for leave A Constitution for Turkey. to appeal against sentences or convictions, and granted one application. Two appeals against convictions were rejected. (p. 3)

Central Criminal Court.

woman who had been in her service, was concluded. The jury found the defendant not guilty, deserving of severe censure. (p. 4)

Bankruptcy Frands.

At Birmingham Assizes, on Thursday night, Henry Smith, 42, charged with offences under the Bankruptcy Acts, was convicted after a three days' trial, and sentenced to 12 months' hard (labour. (p. 4) Police Courts.

At Marlborough-street, Edward Capel, 42, was The Persian Crisis. sentenced to two months' imprisonment, without hard labour, for street betting.—At the Guild- hostilities at Tabriz, but the Nationalist leader is The Queen was present yesterday afternoon hall, John Thompson, 46, charged with obtaining in the Stadium at the Franco-British Exhibi- jewelry under false pretences, stealing a chequetion, and witnessed the conclusion of the book, and forging and uttering two cheques, was The inhabitants of Tabriz have appealed to the committed for trial. (p. 4)

The Olympic Games—The Marathon Race.

There were several competitions and events in number, started from the East Terrace of this was allowed, and Hayes declared the winner. behalf of the Government, with Mr. Harcourt in the chair and Sir E. Grey as one of the principal speakers, Lord Desborough announced that he It is officially announced that Earl Grey, the was requested by the Queen to announce that her

The Bisley Meeting.

At Bisley yesterday, shooting proceeded in the At the annual meeting of the Federation of second stage of the King's Prize, and the Silver Master Cotton Spinners' Associations, held in Medal was won by Gunner Paterson, Lowland Manchester yesterday, a resolution was carried Field Artillery, after tie shots with Private G. Gray, 5th Scots Rifles. The National Challenge Trophy was gained by the Scottish team, with an necessary steps for securing a 5 per cent. aggregate of 1,944, England being second with 1.933. Mr. Barnett, of the Irish Rifle Association, won the Association Match Rifle Cup, and the Royal Navy took the Whitehead Revolver

At Lord's, Lancashire completed their first innings against Middlesex for 275, or 37 ahead. Middlesex, in their second innings, put on 317 for seven wickets, including 100 by Mr. Bosanquet, and 113 by Tarrant.—At Blackheath, Surrey's first innings against Kent was rather quickly finished off for 193, or eight ahead, and to the good. The visitors made 221 in their second innings at the cost of six wickets. Needham contributed 104, thus achieving the feat of Dr. A. C. Houston, director of water examina- making two "centuries" in the same match. that this change is associated with relative scored freely, and at the close had made 304 for (perhaps even absolute) safety of the water so far | nine wickets.—At Harrogate, Leicestershire occupied the whole day in making a first-innings

total of 309 against Yorkshire. (p 15) specific bequests to the amount of £21,500 are for the Liverpool Cup was won by Mr. J. B.

The Grand National Archery Meeting was concluded at Oxford yesterday. The championship was won, for the fifth time, by Mr. Brooks The Lord Mayor yesterday presided at the King, of the Somerset A.S. (p. 15)

The annual regatta of the Brigade of Guards was held in Bray Reach yesterday afternoon. The The programme of this Congress, which opens | Scots Guards were particularly successful in the competitions. (p. 15)

The City.

The Money Market was quiet, and there was no change in the rates for loans and discounts. On the Stock Exchange Consols closed is lower, and the Home Railway Market was again flat. being depressed by a disappointing dividend announcement by the Great Central Company. The Grand Trunk Railway's traffic return was unsatisfactory. Wall-street was a heavy seller of American shares, and the only favourable feature order in reference to the training of officers, in in markets was a rally in Mexican Railway stocks. At the Wool Sales over 14,400 bales were offered, competition was good, and recent prices were fully maintained. On Exchange copper was active, prices fluctuated during the day, and finally showed a rise of 7s. 6d. at £59 The sales at the Mart this week, as registered for cash and £59 13s. 9d. for three months' . to delivery. The market in tin opened strong, but considerable sales followed due to profit-taking, and values closed about 25s. lower. There was more inquiry for coal and a fairly good tone prevailed. At the Baltic wheat remained firm, but there was no improvement in demand. Prices of maize and barley were in sellers' favour. Home refined Urban District Council against a decision of the sugar was in fair request; foreign granulated Court of Appeal, in an action which the appellants | continued dull; beetroot was generally weak in sympathy with advices from the Continent, where the fine weather has influenced markets. (pp. 17

New York Stock Exchange.

Yesterday the New York Stock Exchange was reactionary with much profit taking. The order of a retrial of the Standard Oil Company's suit was the chief influence. Money ruled easy. Sterling exchange was steadier. Silver again

The forecast for Southern England (London and Channel) anticipates for to-day southerly or variable winds, light; fair or fine generally;

IMPERIAL AND FOREIGN.

The great event of yesterday at the Tercenemploy of a Mr. Wright, was bitten by a cat held by the Prince of Wales on the Plains of display of the kind ever witnessed in Canada.—' Empire and by French and American sympa-In the Court of Criminal Appeal, the Lord thizers for the acquisition of the battlefields of

An Imperial Iradé was published in Constantinople yesterday ordering the assembling of a Chamber of Deputies in accordance with a Constitution elaborated by the Sultan. The Iradé Before Mr. Justice Phillimore, the trial of the has been communicated to the provincial authoriten members and ex-members of the Mile-end ties, with orders for the holding of elections. the prosecution was completed, and evidence for The Grand Vizier has issued a circular telegram the defence was proceeding when the Court to these authorities convening a Chamber of adjourned.—Before Mr. Justice Sutton, the trial Deputies. These measures, together with the of Caroline Blackburn, 60, charged with the man- Ministerial changes announced on Wednesday, Latest News ... slaughter by neglect of Sarah Livingstone, an old are the evident outcome of the apprehensions excited in the Sultan by the rapid spread of but expressed the opinion—with which his Lord- military disaffection, the growth of the Young ship expressed his concurrence—that she was Turkey party, and the demand of the Albanians to have mutinied., (p. 7)

Since Thursday there has been a cessation of active in preparations for renewing the fighting. Shah through the European Legations. (p. 7)

M. Fallières's Tour.

The disturbances in Bombay, originating in years' residence in a constituent college, which by the Princess of Wales, and their course Tilak, assumed serious proportions yesterday. Attacks were made by rioters on Europeans ir the streets, outbreaks occurred in all the factory ere long had to give place to others, and districts, and a mail train was attacked by a mob, for some time before the finish an Italian repre- which afterwards assaulted some native policesentative. Dorando, was in front, closely pressed men. The Bombay Volunteers, who were stationed An impressive service was held yesterday in by Hefferon, a South African, and by a United near, fired on the crowd, and several persons States competitor named Hayes. Dorando reached were killed and others wounded. All the avail-

A strike of tramway employés began unances till they have returned to work. (p. 7)

SUBJECT INDEX.

The Court, and Personal News:

Court Circ: lar and N ws: The Emperor of China's Birthday; Lawy P.ymouth's Masked Ball The Queen and the Marathon Race... Honour for Lord Grey M. Fallières at Stockholm ... The Late Bishop Potter To-day's and Prospective Arrangements ... Obituary: Captain J. P. Thurburn... The Empire and Foreign Affairs: The Quebec Fêtes Honour for Lord Grey In Memory of Wolfe: Service at Greenwich ... 10 The Standard Oil Company ... Bombay Rioters Fired upon by Troops The Indian Budget Debate ... The Persian Crisis Constitution for Turkey M. Fallières at Stockholm New Zealand Finance ... Tramway Strike in Sydney ... Depression in Cape Colony Transvaal Civil Service Newfoundland Fisheries Dispute ... The African Society ... Imperial Institute

				***	-
Australian Ideals (IV.)	***	***	***
Home Politics and Aff	airs :	;
Parliament—Commons: Ir	ish Ur	niversi	ties Bi	il 5	&
Parliamentary Notices					1
Political Notes	•-•	•••	•••		1
9			•		1
Licensing Bill Demonstrat	ion		•••		1
Woman Suffragists and Mi	nister	3	•••	200	1
Woman Suffrage	•••	•••	•••	•••	1
The International Free Tra		_		•••	1
Conservative and Constitu	tional	Assoc	iation		1
Government Publications	•••		•••	•••
The Jubilee of Jewish Em	ancipa	tion	•••	*44	1
The Franco-British Exhibi	tion		***	***
Claim Against the France	o-Briti	sh Ex	hibitic)n	4
The Constitution Congress		•••	***	***	(
The Future of the Crystal	Palace	• • • • •		-	1
The Speed of Motor-cars	•••	***	***	•••
Co-partnership Tenants' H	ousing	Coun	cil
Registry Office Marriages	***	•••	***	***
Bank Holiday on the East	Coast	P44	•••	•••

safety.

The Times London Edition ...

Religion, Education, Charity, Health: Ecclesiastical Intelligence Bishops and Motor-Cars University Intelligence The Imperial College of Science and Technology 13 The Irish Universities Bill ... The Training of Secondary School Teachers Society of Apothecaries of London The Cost of Medical Education Church Schools Emergency League Large Charitable Bequests ... Metropolitan Water Board Research Work Queen Victoria's Jubilee Institute for Nurses ... 10 Sewer-Single Private Drains: Law The Breathing of Ozone

Naval and Military: Naval and Military Intelligence The Naval Manœuvres Colonel Seely and the Fleet ... The London Gazette ... Flag Appointments British Visitors at Cherbourg Arsenal Bisley: The Silver Medallist The Army Airship

Law, Crime, and Accidents: Law Report ... Law Notices ... The Police Courts ... The Michaelmas Law Sittings The Assizes ... County of London Sessions ... Jury Service in the City

Science, Art, Music, and Drama: The Recent Excavations in Crete ... National Competition of Schools of Art ... The O'Hagan Roman Coins ... Sale of Engravings ... Norfolk and Norwich Musical Festival The Alhambra Theatre Sport, Agriculture, and Country Life:

Central Criminal Court: The Mile-end Case ...

Sporting Intelligence: Racing: Liverpool Summer Meeting; Cricket; Rowing... ... 15 The Marathon Race: Victory of J. J. Hayes; The Queen and Dorando (with Map) Large Thames Carp ... The Charm of Flowers in Switzerland Country Holidays for Clerkenwell Children Royal Botanic Society

Mail and Shipping Intelligence

Shipping Disasters: Reported Loss of Life

The Marine Insurance Market

The Weather Postal Servants... City Article Stock and Share List ... The London Gazette Public Companies Company Meetings: To-day's Arrangements ... New Zealand Finance Natal Finances... The Standard Oil Company ... Traffic Receipts... Home Markets . Selati Railway Bonds ... Canadian Pacific Railroad Earnings American Markets Toronto Stock Exchange Continental Bourses Auction Summary Wages in the Cotton Trade The Break Up of the Inland Revenue Department 14

The Turkish Constitution.

The dramatic rapidity with which the Sultan problem of Macedonia. The British proposals, countries which do not admit those precise for a Constitution.—From Salonika it is reported has granted a Constitution to Turkey is the best which have met with such a satisfactory reception principles will in the long run feel satisfaction at that the whole population is being won over to proof of the imminent peril in which he has found in the European capitals, will scarcely be pressed the certainty of the awards. Whatever, indeed, may the Constitutional movement; and from Monastir himself. For the moment it does not matter at a moment when Turkey is in confusion. We can be thought of the merit of all the rules followed comes a statement that the town is in the hands very much whether, as is most probable, hardly expect to see mobile columns suppressing by Lord Desborough and his colleagues during of the Young Turks, and that Marshal Osman he has revived the suspended Constitution brigandage by order of the Sultan when the their most arduous and efficient labours of the Pasha has been seized there and carried off to of 1876, or whether, as is apparently troops designated for those columns have not only last fortnight, their personality and their evident Okhrida.—The entire garrison of Uskub is said suggested in the official announcement, he has temporarily repudiated the authority of Abbut impartiality will have impressed all competitors promulgated an entirely new Constitution. The HAMID, but are actually entering successfully that their cause could not be in fairer hands. one momentous fact, which is inevitably destined into association with the bands for the mainten- The full tale of the Olympic Games is not to have far-reaching consequences in Eastern ance of order. After a due interval we must look yet completed; but their most important phase Europe, is that Abdul Hamid has professedly to the new Administration to carry into effect will be completed to-day by the presentation relinquished some, at any rate, of those despotic those projects of reform which have been pressed of the prizes by Her Majesty the Queen. This, and autocratic privileges which he abandoned upon the Sultan as imperative. We have always then, would seem a suitable opportunity for an almost immediately after his accession only to held that, if the neighbours of Macedonia would expression of thanks for the ungrudging and seize them again with a firmer grasp. We have still be content to leave Macedonia alone, the best patriotic labours of Lord Desborough, the Rev. to see whether his sudden decision to liberalize solution of the Macedonian problem would be a DE COURCY LAFFAN, and the other members of The President of the French Republic yester- the institutions of Turkey will suffice to rescue reformed Turkey. But, whether the task devolves the British Olympic Council in so successfully In the House of Commons, the report stage of the Stadium yesterday, but their interest was day arrived at Stockholm, where he had a hearty him from the very grave plight in which he is upon the Sultan or upon his Parliament, no organizing and conducting this great interplaced. The avowed primary object of the Young effort must be spared to press upon the Turkish | national meeting. Turkey movement, which has accomplished this authorities in due season the conviction of the swift and almost bloodless revolution, was to secure Powers that, whatever may have happened in his abdication. About Hamm has acted shrewdly Turkey, Macedonia cannot be allowed to remain in seeking to make terms with his people while in the deplorable condition into which it has so there is yet time. With the army at his back he long been allowed to lapse. At this juncture, stage yesterday, after two days' debate, and was able to trifle with the liberties of his subjects, we may add, a very special responsibility rests doubtless will be read a third time to-day. to oppress the various helpless adherents of other upon the States adjoining the Turkish borders. When it goes up to the House of Lords, creeds residing within his Empire, and to direct Any attempt to take advantage of the new com-there will be opportunities for discussing an administration steeped in corruption and plications in order to stir up fresh strife in any it with greater freedom and with more publicity notorious for inefficiency. When the army began part of the Sultan's dominions would meet with than was possible under the procedure adopted to forswear its allegiance, he was at once the emphatic reprobation of the rest of Europe. in the House of Commons. Efforts will preable military have been called out. According to paralyzed and helpless. The military revolt in Turkey has a right to ask that she may be sumably be made, and we trust made with over Montcalm. There was a crowded congregation is somewhat Macedonia is only one phase of a discontent which allowed to work towards her own regeneration success, in the course of its further progress, to tion, including Field-Marshal Sir G. White, represent second in 2h. 55min. 18sec., and Hesseron was quieter, although the attitude of the mob remains has become almost universal in Turkey. Had the attitude of the mob remains has become almost universal in Turkey. Had the attitude of the mob remains has become almost universal in Turkey. Had the attitude of the mob remains has become almost universal in Turkey. Sultan been able to send other troops to crush intrigues or the intrusions of those around her. Birrell originally professed to be eager the mutinous soldiery at Ochrida and Resna and The constitutional movement is, however, that it should bear, but which he has so other places, we should no doubt never have probably in greater peril from within than from signally failed to impress upon it. But both expectedly in Sydney yesterday morning. Dis- witnessed this hasty promulgation of constitu- without. The Young Turks will find the change parties are anxious that the Roman Catholics turbances occurred between a crowd of strikers tional privileges. But the Sultan was driven from agitation to responsibility beset with pit- of Ireland should at last obtain a teaching and their friends and military patrols, and 17 into a corner. The telegrams of the last day or falls, some of them, no doubt, wrought by them- University exempt from the ban of the authorities persons were arrested. All the strikers, who are two show clearly that the revolutionary spirit was selves. They will do well to remember, too, of their Church, and both earnestly desire that State employés, have been dismissed; and the spreading like wildfire throughout the whole army. that the hand which has given the new Assembly it should start upon its career with prospects There was every possibility that the new regi- to Turkey has proffered the same boon before, as propitious as circumstances may allow. We ments now being hurried into Macedonia would only to snatch it away again when a propitious do not apprehend that the majority of not only refuse to fire upon their mutinous com- moment arrived. rades, but would join them in their vigorous revolt. PAGE The ruler of Turkey has, therefore, had to bow with all possible speed to the mandate of his indignant people. When it was announced on tact which endears her to the hearts of all the Nonconformist supporters profess, and with the Wednesday that he had dismissed his Grand King's subjects, has retrieved what all must have particular principles to which he over and over Vizier, Ferid Pasha, and appointed Said Pasha thought a somewhat unfortunate ending to the again proclaimed that it would conform. They in his stead, it was manifest that important great Marathon race run yesterday. At the will try, we should assume, to bring it into changes were impending. The nomination of Kiamil Pasha to the Council of Ministers con- Lord Desborough announced that Dorando, the points where its divergence from them is firmed the impression. SAID and KIAMIL were in the Italian runner, who, though first at the tape, most glaring, and, having performed that duty, turn the Grand Viziers of the early years of the was disqualified owing to assistance received they will leave the responsibility for its results Sultan's rule. Kiamil Pasha has always had in the last few yards, was to be presented to its author, to those who have inspired pronounced Liberal tendencies. SAID PASHA is with a special cup by the Queen, who was him, and to those who have acted with him. narrower in his outlook, and when he was ABDUL anxious to give it personally to-day either to The auspices under which the scheme will Hamid's secretary he planned the methods by himself or to his representative. It is no enter into life cannot be regarded as favourable, which the Sultan rapidly extinguished the exaggeration to say that the 100,000 spectators so far as the Dublin University is concerned, powers of the Sublime Porte. The shock of dis- who had assembled to see the finish of the race even by the fond eye of a parent. The growth covering that on becoming Grand Vizier he was felt a thrill of sympathy as the brave Italian and development of that institution depends himself one of the first victims of his own adroit first staggered dazed and fainting before them. largely upon the action of those over whom devices for the extinction of Ministerial And when, in spite of three collapses, he Parliament has little or no control. The paratively easy. The revolutionaries in was represented by no fewer than fifteen.

had failed to accomplish. A notable charac-| believe that he is justified. In the first place, it what uncertain quantity.

last few days is that they greatly complicate the depart on any pretext, we believe that even those

The Marathon Race. to be that of surprise. The natural view is that that Italy can breed men of pluck and they treated the Queen's Colleges. any change in Turkey must be a change for the endurance such as are needed in other In its present shape the scheme satisfies " 12 better, because it is impossible for the situation fields of national life besides sport. At the same nobody, except perhaps Mr. Dillon and the to be very much worse than it has been of late. time, Englishmen will rejoice in the victory of an section of the Nationalists who think with him. We do not anticipate that the metamorphosis American, and in the splendid display made by the Bishop O'Dwyer, who is one of the ablest and the comparative smoothness which has marked Interest in the Olympic Games, which had Ireland constructed upon Roman Catholic lines, the initial stages of the movement. There must gradually been growing owing to various has stated more than once and with characterbe some jarring influences which will be bound to causes, not least of which was the ex-listic vigour of language that its principles are obtrude themselves. The drafting of a Constitu- cellent sport displayed, had come to its height "utterly foreign" to the principles of his tion on paper is simple enough, but the difficulties for this great race. The vast enclosure of the Church, and the Bishops as a body have recorded begin when it is sought to put it into operation. Stadium was packed to its utmost extent and their dismay at the discovery that the Dublin Persia has just learned by bitter experience that disappointed crowds were turned away from the University is to be non-residential. None of constitutional privileges in an Oriental land are doors. The qualifications of the various candi- them has pretended to admire it, and several of sometimes beset by awkward disadvantages. Very dates had been widely canvassed, and in England them have intimated their disapprobation of one much will depend upon the spirit in which the high hopes had been expressed that our repre- or other of its provisions. The University men in Sultan regards the new Assembly. His decision sentatives would be able to give an excellent Parliament who are best qualified by study and has come so late in the day that it cannot account of themselves. But in many ways the by experience to form an instructed judgment possibly convey an impression of good faith. He race was a great surprise. The pace of the first upon it, and who have sought to approach it has granted or revived the Constitution, not few miles must have been terrific, and probably throughout from a purely academic standpoint, because he wished to do so, but because the time for that reason, and on account of the unaccus- make no secret of their disappointment at the had arrived when he had no option in the matter. | tomed heat of the day, our men, who had done | refusal of the CHIEF SECRETARY to modify it in Unless Yildiz Kiosk gives the new Assembly a well in practices, fell off as the race progressed. accordance with the established and recognized fair chance of working along its appointed path, Again, Longboar, the redoubtable Indian from traditions of University life, and of the misgivings its advent may only plunge Turkey into greater | Canada, did not answer to the expectations held | with which its actual provisions fill them. The disorder than ever. The relations between the Shah of him. But the American Continent has tone of poignant regret in which Mr. Butchen and his Parliament were amiable enough at the out- had it nearly all its own way; of the first resterday deplored Mr. Birrell's determination set, but within a very few months the Monarch four, three including the victor come from to enable the students of the seminary of Maywas battering down the meeting-place of his lieges | the United States, while Canada takes a nooth and of other similar institutions to enjoy with guns. We look upon the new experiment high place among the next eight. The second all the privileges of this teaching University, with sympathy, but with considerable misgivings was also a representative of the Anglo-Saxon race, without having spent an hour within its as to its possible consequences. Yet we also Hefferon, a prison-warder from Bloemfontein, walls, save for purposes of examination, shows remember that Turkev is, after all, far better who led for a considerable part of the last few how sensible are those who have only the qualified to receive the boon of free institutions miles. Undoubtedly, however, after this race, interests of education at heart to the way in and a free Press than the backward and compara- we shall have to revise our estimate of English which these have been sacrificed to political extively isolated country of Persia. One very and American athletes' comparative worth; for pediency. Mr. Butcher combines an excepreassuring feature of the situation is the orderly while we believed that the Americans were tional experience of University life, both in Engand restrained demeanour of the leaders of the better at sprinting, we felt some confidence land and in Scotland, with an intimate knowledge Young Turkey movement. They have carried in our own staying powers for long-distance of the conditions and the wants of his own out their plans with considerable skill. But for running. But although we naturally feel country. The amendments which he has pressed the aid of the army, they might have pursued some regret that the English runners, from upon the Government have been obviously their propaganda for years without making much whom much was expected, did not make a better inspired by a single-minded desire to make the progress. When once they had induced a con- appearance on our own ground, it is at least some new Dublin University and its constituent siderable proportion of the army, officers and men satisfaction to our national pride that among the colleges efficient centres of liberal culture. But alike, to join their movement, the rest was com- first seventeen runners the Anglo-Saxon stock Mr. Birrell, strong in the support of the condition of quietude in various districts of the to improve relations between the different reasons. Apparently he has correctly gauged the - 14 province which both the Sultan and the Powers countries competing. In this contention welconvictions of the men who urged him not to hear teristic of the movement has been the friendly helps considerably to increase our respect for attitude of the leaders towards the Christians in other nations to find that they show skill in the insurrection. The manner in which they have sports which we had regarded as peculiarly been appealing to all creeds and races to work our own, and the friendly rivalry engendered together is in entire accord with the spirit of the in the attempt to surpass their skill tends new Constitution, which is understood to confer to good fellowship and mutual appreciation. equal rights upon all subjects of the Sultan. There is a certain freemasonry among sports-If the Young Turkey movement, which has men of any nation, and when it is found already attained its principal object, continues that this freemasonry exists among other nations, to be conducted on enlightened and pacific and can be brought into relation with our own, lines, it may go far towards bringing about the this idea of friendship spreads gradually through regeneration of Turkey. We cannot forget, how- the community. A generous assistance to fellowever, that the real instrument which has wrought athletes in distress, which has been marked in this change is the Turkish army, and the pre- several incidents during these Games, has largely dominant influence in the army was discontent at | tended to increase this friendly spirit. On the arrears of pay and conditions of service. Military other side much has been heard of certain grievances probably weighed a great deal more disputed awards which have created some sorewith the soldiery than any desire for a Parlia- ness in some nations. But, on the whole, we ment. When those grievances are rectified, the believe that even these causes of friction may not support of the army may possibly become a some- prove unmixed evils in the end. When it is found that the judges in giving their awards act An immediate consequence of the events of the on rigid principles, from which they do not

The Irish Universities Bill. The Irish Universities Bill passed the report

the Peers will adopt an attitude which would wreck the scheme. They will naturally point out its manifold inconsistencies with the educa-HER MAJESTY the QUEEN, with that womanly tional theories which Mr. BIRRELL and his Government banquet to the Olympic Council closer harmony with those principles in some of authority no doubt had a great effect upon his struggled unbeaten to the end, it was felt that Bishops, as Mr. BUTCHER said yesterday, views. To-day both Ministers, who are almost human courage and endurance could hardly go can wreck it, if they are so minded, as they the only survivors of the old Turkish school of further. The story goes that Pheidippides the wrecked the Queen's Colleges, and we do not yet statesmen, enjoy widespread respect in Turkey. Athenian ran from Athens to Sparta to claim aid know whether they turn upon it a favourable or Both are known to disapprove of the reactionary against the Persians, and ran back with the news an unfavourable eye. Still less can we and secret methods of control practised at Yildiz that Sparta hung back, but with a divine message say what may be the judgment of that Kiosk. That the Sultan should have turned to that Athens would win. As a reward he chose authority, to which the Bishops are pledged to yield them in such an emergency is not surprising, and the privilege of fighting for his country at obedience. Neither the hierarchy nor the that they should recommend the restoration Marathon, and at the close of the day ran the Vatican have committed themselves on the of constitutional privileges is only natural. twenty-six miles to his native city to bring her scheme, and, perhaps, they may not be in a hurry SAID and KIAMIL have poignant memories the glad tidings which he uttered with his last to commit themselves. Their policy may not of their experiences under the administra- breath. To commemorate this great feat of human improbably be to take it for what it is tive system now terminating. They can both endurance and of patriotism the Olympic Com- worth, and to see to what extent they can recollect the time when it was only possible for mittee have made a Marathon race of twenty-six mould it in practice into accordance with them to remain in Turkey after Great Britain had miles the culminating event in their meeting. their ideals. If they can shape the plastic extracted from the Sultan guarantees for their Dorando and Hayes (the winner) and their clay, which the author of the undenomicompanions had no such supreme motive national Elementary Education Bill of 1906 has Yet the spectacle of Turkey suddenly equipped in yesterday's race as Pheidippides, but they placed in their hands, into the form that they with a Constitution amid the bland benedictions ran for their country's glory against the desire, they will tolerate the new University of the Sultan is still so far unexpected that champions of other friendly nations. Dorando, without enthusiasm; should they not succeed the dominating feeling of the beholders is bound by his gallant struggle, proved once again in doing this, they will treat it, we imagine, as of the autocracy can be accomplished with representatives of the United States in this race. | warmest advocates of a teaching University in Nationalists, and of the Nonconformists who have Macedonia seem to have comported themselves | Sir Edward Grey, in his speech at the adjusted their consciences to the situation, meets on the whole with admirable calmness and freedom banquet offered by the Government, touched the considered arguments of men like Mr. from violence. They shot a few unpopular officers upon the international effects of the Olympic Butcher and Sir William Anson with a jest, at the outset, but they rapidly brought about a Games, and pointed out that they tend and a sneer at the "academic" character of their