CONTENTS.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN INTELLIGENOR Baron Nordenskjold's Expedition to the Andes ... 1 Mrs. Warren's Profession: From our New York Correspondent The Musée des Arts Décoratifs

The Unemployed: Deputation to Mr. Balfour Fiscal Policy: Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Balfour Mr. Balfour and the Freedom of Newcastle... Political Speeches Mr. Gerald Balfour and the Poor Law London County Council: The Westminster Scheme 1'

The Anglo-Japanese Alliance ... The China Association ... Ocean Freights to South Africa Sir F. Treves on Disease... Central and Associated Chambers of Agriculture ... The Huxley Memorial Lecture... The British Association ... The Alexandra Homes Cambridge-house ... Postal Order Counterfoils Metropolitan Railway Company: Reduced Fares 11

The Public Health... A.Pathologist's Fees The Eton War Memorial... Royal Opera From The Times of 1805... Court News To-day's Arrangements ... The London Gazette The Weather University Intelligence ... Ecclesiastical Intelligence Naval and Military Intelligence Sporting Intelligence ... Obituary: Sir Bryan O'Loghlen The Money Market Stock and Share List

The Marine Insurance Market ... Public Companies... J. and P. Coats (Limited) Home and Foreign Markets Continental Bourses Mail and Shipping Intelligence Law Report... The Police Courts... Inquests Engineering Supplement: Special Articles

Review of the Technical Press ...

Societies and Institutions ...

Public Income and Expenditure

Chemical Notes Notes from Foreign Periodicals ... Patent Abstracts Correspondence ... 287 & 290 Minor Articles and Paragraphs 286, 287, 290, & 291 Advertisements ... 286, 287, 289, 290, 291, & 292 CORRESPONDENCE: Trafalgar and the Nelson Touch (Our Corre-

The Withdrawal of Troops from the West Indies Assessment of Dr. Clifford's Chapel (Mr. R. Mudie Smith)... Religious Education ... American Competition in the Australian Trade ... The Protest of Poland... The Royal Soldiers' Daughters' Home, Hampstead (Lord de Ros) ... ... LEADING ARTICLES:

The Tsar's Manifesto; The Powers and China... ADVERTISEMENTS.

Births, Marriages, and Deaths Board and Residence and Apartments Musical Instruments Partnerships, Investments, Coals, Coke, &c.... Colleges and Public Schools Flats, Chambers, and Offices Sales by Auction Horses, Carriages, &c.__ Hospital Nurses... 2 The Times Book Club ... 12 16 Trades ... 1, 4, 6, 7, 10, 11, & 15 15 Want Places ...

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1905.

Epping Forest to Newmarket. (p. 9)

address of the winter session at the Edinburgh LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.—At yesterday's were heard on a rule for a mandamus to the least long enough to discover with some precision plainly seen. Fresh forces of industry and pro- arrived at 28, Belgrave-square, from Ireland. Lord Carew Coventry justices directing them to hear and what is to be hoped for from the present régime gress have been released, and it seems impossible will follow shortly.

moderate to strong southerly to westerly winds; to be done if Russian liberty is to be won only commercial struggle may be fair, but it will be from Löhne. The Comtess arrives in town to-day. unsettled; rain at times, fair intervals; mild. through internecine conflict. It cannot be incomparably keener than it has been in the past,

THE CITY.—The Money Market was active crisis. There ought to be something tan- cleared out of the way. At the dinner of discounts. On the Stock Exchange the news from fidence so long forfeited. It is true that time man alluded to the deadweight of Chinese has been laid up in London for nearly a month by a severe | Seymour left for the Homestead, Bourne end, lent by the advanced 3 to 881 and 8813, and quotations left off higher in all departments. (p. 13)

Russia.—The Tsar's manifesto conceding free Constitution to Russia has been received! with much enthusiasm both in the capital and in be satisfied without further concessions and definite guarantees for the liberties already protained yesterday, but the general strike was struggle of the proletariat has not ended with the wearing her chains in despairing apathy. promulgation of the Tsar's Ukase. The people It has been found desirable to announce in

Lord Curzon has been attacked by fever at superior officers, and a general. Lahore, and his departure from that city has been indefinitely postponed. (p. 6) Sweden.—King Oscar has requested and irreversible revolution that has been effected future attitude of China. So soon as the Chinese and Captain the Hon. J. R. L. Yarde-Buller, arrived at in Russian thought and feeling than the reception Government was able to give manifest proof Royal Highnesses were afterwards driven to Clarenceaccorded to the manifesto of the TSAR. It has of its ability to guarantee the lives and pro- house, St. James's Palace. been received with unbounded enthusiasm and perty of foreign residents, it was presumed almost frantic expressions of popular joy. But that the military occupation would cease. Stavordale will be performed at the Chapel Royal, the enthusiasm is not, as it would have been only Since the protocol was signed there has St. James's Palace, on Saturday. His Majesty, who was a few months ago, the enthusiasm of gratitude to been no serious recrudescence of anti-foreign present at the wedding of the parents, will attend the the father of his people for delivering them from feeling; and, while the present state abused his confidence and kept him in ignorance EMPEROR in the course he has just taken, it is go as far as Egypt with Princess Louise of Schleswigof what was done in his name. It is the enthusiasm | conceivable that the withdrawal might have been of victory, the joy of a despairing people at having, carried out still earlier if the same influence by the manifestation of its power, forced reluctant | which is now being exerted in its favour had not | late last night by the Flushing boat train express from THE KING yesterday morning concluded his pervious to pity. It is not enthusiasm carrying The first Power that actually took an overt step visit to Colonel Lockwood, M.P., at Bishop's the Russian colours and singing pæans to the Tsar, in the matter was Italy, who as far back as April cross last evening from the Continent, and afterwards but enthusiasm carrying red flags and singing withdrew the Italian contingent of occupation. the "Marseillaise" except when it intones the The other Powers have no interest in con-Sir F. Treves yesterday delivered the opening hymn for the dead in honour of martyrs to the tinuing the occupation a day longer than cause. The vast procession that filled the Nevsky is necessary, and the Emperor William's Philosophical Institution, taking for his subject Prospekt is not the least grave and ominous of the proposal is likely to be acceptable to them. many warnings given to the Sovereign and the It is announced to-day that BARON KOMURA Saturday evening. weekly meeting, the offer of a syndicate to lease bureaucracy. It is a warning to them to walk has informed the German Minister in Tokio from the Council the surplus lands from the very warily and to deal very sincerely and that the Mikado gladly agrees to the sug-Westminster improvement at a rental which will straightforwardly with the people they have gested withdrawal, and has given instructions day for Welbeck Abbey. ultimately reach £52,750 per annum was accepted goaded into that dangerous temper. The popular for the necessary steps to be concerted with the after further discussion. It was resolved that instinct is right, whatever may be the practical other Powers. There is every reason to believe for Baron's Court, Newtown Stewart, Ireland. THE LORD MAYOR presided yesterday at a be worth little in practice. A great step has British contingent from being withdrawn already. bridge-house, the Cambridge University Lay show that they know exactly how it has been will give a pledge of confidence in China which is wark, the Rev. W. J. Conybeare, the Lord Chief again apply the pressure with all the advantages of of any other Power, in view of the large British favourable progress.

The Earl of M' experience and improved organization. We trust | interests involved in the Peking-Tientsin railway Pancras Coroner's Court on the body of Baron popular leaders the wisdom of moderation. On the German movements consequent on Gunter Rau von Holzhausen, 23, who shot himself the morrow of their victory they can afford to EMPEROR WILLIAM's action, it may be noted that with a revolver on Sunday morning in the boudoir give their rulers every chance to prove the his representative in Peking has declared that of Mrs. Lionel Monckton, professionally known as Sincerity and the reality of the concessions Germany would also withdraw the advanced posts | Sincerity and the reality of the concessions which have from time to time been pushed out to Russell-square. Evidence was given by Mr. and announced by the TSAR. They cannot be blamed which have from time to time been pushed out to Mrs. Monckton and other witnesses, and the jury if, after the experiences they have passed cope with local disturbances in Shan-tung. This yesterday for Paris. found that the deceased had shot himself while in | through, they feel profound distrust of all official | means, we presume, their retirement from whathis right mind. The coroner said that was a assurances, and look for a snare beneath every ever points they have reached in the German zone official promise. But they would strengthen of influence—a zone which, by the convention of CHAMBERS OF AGRICULTURE.—At a meeting of their position morally, without losing any 1898, extends to a radius of 50 kilomètres from the council of this body, yesterday, a report of their position morally, without losing any 1898, extends to a radius of 50 kilomètres from the council of this body, yesterday, a report of their position morally, without losing any 1898, extends to a radius of 50 kilomètres from the council of this body, yesterday, a report of their position morally, without losing any the Bay of Kiao-chau—to Tsing-tau in the leased the Parliamentary committee, which complained advantage they now enjoy, were they to assume the Bay of Kiao-chau—to Tsing-tau in the leased day for Newcastle-on-Tyne. of want of sympathy by the Government with that genuine reforms are at last offered to them, territory actually lying on the bay. various measures affecting agriculturists, and un-and to give a reasonable amount of time for The Peace of Portsmouth, which the EMPEROR favourably criticized the proposal for the redis- their execution. There is no way of constructing WILLIAM assigns as the occasion of his action, tribution of Parliamentary seats, was adopted a new Russia offhand. The bureaucracy cannot marks the beginning of a new epoch in the Far that there was no material change in his condition. Hussars, son of the late Captain William St. Lo Malet, THE CHINA ASSOCIATION held their annual do it, even with all the good will in the East. It closes a war in which Japan fought, not dinner last night at the Hôtel Métropole. (p. 11) world. Neither can the revolutionary leaders only for her national existence, but for the THE LAW Courts.—In the Court of Appeal, do it, however complete may be their integrity of China; and in China, not less than vesterday it was decided to postpone the meeting in conyesterday, before the Master of the Rolls and victory over the bureaucracy. It would seem, the two lately belligerent countries, the con-Lords Justices Romer and Mathew, arguments therefore, to be the part of wisdom to pause at sequences of the new state of things will be determine an application for a renewal licence to the Lamb and Flag Inn, Coventry. The renewal after the discipline it has undergone. of the licence had been refused by the justices | Unhappily, the messages we publish this morn- | under the guarantees now established for terriwas not necessary. Their Lordships upheld the very little ground for hoping that moderate door. This principle is secured more firmly than decision of the justices, and discharged the counsels will prevail. He gives an interpretation it has ever been secured before by its consecrarule.—In the Probate and Divorce Division, of what is going on around him much more tion in the new Anglo-Japanese treaty. was concluded of a suit in which Anna Comtesse uncompromising than an observer at a distance the same time, and by virtue of the treaty, de Hamel de Manin sought divorce from Comte would venture to offer with assurance. He tells an unparalleled opening is offered to British Gustave de Hamel de Manin on the grounds of us that the manifesto has fallen absolutely flat, commerce. The guarantee of equal opportunity Dubl' his alleged cruelty and adultery. These charges and has only stimulated revolt. That it should be assured us a fair field in the vast Empire which spondent was admitted, and that of misconduct something more—as a possible means of escape peculiar prestige in the Far East which we have THE WEATHER forecast for Southern England whole difficulty and horror of the work that has which the new era promises. The terms of the thought very surprising if they refuse and we shall need more energy and forethought for the Continent. SPECIAL ARTICLES are published to-day on to believe that it can be won in any other way. than we have always cared to show if we are to be The Musée des Arts Décoratifs " (p. 4) and, in Nor can it be honestly said that the vague and successful. The dominating control exercised by returned to Downshire-house, Belgrave-square.

prices, owing partly to repurchases by operators But no time is needed for the Tsan to order reform means a decrease in its personal profits. from duty for some little time. the immediate release of merely political China is beginning to show marked signs of prowho have taken part in the proceedings upon of bureaucratic obstruction is finally swept away. certain sanction. An instant change of personnel dealt with. Our partners in the new alliance pain yesterday morning and somewhat easier. in a few governorships and great offices of State will certainly not hold back. We may depend would also be an earnest of sincerity universally upon it that nothing will daunt the Japanese in has arrived at 3, Bennett-street, St. James's, S.W. the great provincial cities, but there are already understood. One such change is happily announced their effort to capture markets in China. Our in the resignation of M. Pobledonostzeff, the older commercial competitors will be fully alive left Euston yesterday for Saighton Grange, Chester. formidable Procurator of the Holy Synod. But, to their opportunities too. Under these conmised. The text of the manifesto was not with that one exception, nothing has been actually ditions nothing but thoroughgoing application the National and Local Debt." published in St. Petersburg till midnight on done, and Count Witte merely offers one of can maintain our important Chinese interests in Monday, but great crowds immediately assembled the ambiguous and qualified assurances which the place they ought to occupy. in the streets, cheering for the Tsar and liberty. nobody trusts when he says that in a few days the Yesterday morning there was an enormous demonstration in the Nevsky Prospekt; red flags Council of Ministers will consider about releasing were waved and revolutionary speeches were persons they may think it possible to release withdelivered. The people called on the troops to out danger to tranquillity. In the circumjoin in their rejoicing, and in some instances the stances there is a political ineptitude about such call was responded to. Orders had been given to a declaration which augurs ill for his capacity to the troops not to interfere with the demonstrations. The railway strike was generally mainend, yet Count Witte-months behind the

JAPAN.—The Mikado yesterday received the Protocol of 1901 recognized the right of the preparations made for his receptions, and his regret that he was unable to stop and acknowledge the same their congratulations on the conclusion of peace, Powers to occupy Tien-tsin and other points personally. and afterwards entertained them at luncheon. necessary to keep open communication with the The Prince of Wales, who is president of sea. No time limit was imposed upon this inter- and hares for the use of the patients in that institution. national military occupation. Its duration was, Nothing could be more significant of the great however, generally understood to depend on the panied by Princess Patricia and attended by Miss Pelly oppression exercised by those who had long China may be held to justify the GERMAN

The King left Bishop's-hall, Lambourne, yesterday, at 10 40, by motor-car for Newmarket. A left Dublin by motor-car yesterday for Somerville, Co. wore Dutch caps of lace with pink silk ornaments at the side. The bridegroom presented each with sheaves of an opportunity of viewing Epping Forest. Colonel Lockwood, M.P., led the way in his own motor-car, as on who went over to Paris to sing at the Opera Comique, has Edwards, 20th Hussars, was best man. On leaving the manifestly weakening. The Social Democratic situation—talks about persons who may be Monday, and the forest was reached at Theydon Bois just been informed that, to mark its appreciation of her church the bridal pair passed under the crossed swords of party has issued a manifesto declaring that the dangerous to public order as if Russia were still at 10 50. The day was beautifully fine, and this, success, the French Government had conferred upon her the Hussars. A reception was subsequently held at 18, which is one of the finest but least known parts of the forest, looked extremely well in its autumnal dress. On during the week following the reassembling of the left for Paris. The bride travelled in a dress of pale blue must hold meetings for the discussion of political questions, continue the strikes, organize a militia, the abrogation of the dictatorship and named from being a favourite resort of the monks of the United process. and demand an amnesty.—The news from Poland the calling together of the Diet. Again con- Waltham Abbey. On the right was Ambresbury Banks, States Ambassador, has returned to Wrest-park, Ampthill, and from Odessa continues grave. At Warsaw cession comes too late, and again it indicates only the reputed camp of Boadicea, where tradition says the Bedfordshire, from Paris. and Lodz there are still collisions between the weakness. Finland is in revolt, and the soldiers British Queen was captured by Suctonius. Opposite and Lodz there are still collisions between the troops and the people, and revolutionary and the people, and revolutionary demonstrations occur in the streets. At Odessa the populace seem no whit the police and the Cossacks are alleged to be deliberately provoking disturbances in order to have an excuse for attacking the crowd.—A late and a number of forest-keepers late and late and a number of generated by Suctomics. Opposite late and the residence of Mr. Gerald Buxton, Mr. Homeastle, the chairman of the City of London Corporation to the Grand Day inner of Gray's Inn for the Gray's Inn fo general strike was proclaimed at Helsingfors other places as in the capital that distrust is in uniform waited to receive the King, who halted for a By the courtesy of the House Committee of the It was happily revived last night, and was received with general strike was proclaimed at Heisingtors other places as in the capital that distributed by count Witte to the Tsar, at the submitted by Count Witte to the Tsar, at the repressive measures. The bureaucrats are going memorate his visit. Within the last few months there has been placed in the forest measure of the that hospital on Friday, December 15, at 4 o'clock, when omission from the regular repertory would be hard to explain: in London the only wonder is that so fine a piece head of which his Majesty wrote the direction:

The report sets forth their own way as if the manifesto had not been tree which was planted at High Beech by Henry VIII.; the North St. Paneras District.

The report sets forth their own way as if the manifesto had not been tree which was planted at High Beech by Henry VIII.; the North St. Paneras District.

The report sets forth their own way as if the manifesto had not been tree which was planted at High Beech by Henry VIII.; the North St. Paneras District. ment, urges that there should be no official inter- if excited processionists. With these things when dedicating this forest of 6,000 acres to the public, ment, urges that there should be no olicial inter- in excited processionists. With these things ference in the elections to the Duma, and recom- going on in the streets, who can blame the however, a telegram was sent from Bishop's-hall to the by his London and provincial colleagues, was presented dominance of the orchestra was the more to be regrettedmends a reform of the Council of the Empire on people for making light of empty phrases effect that the King would prefer not to take part in any to Mr. E. Trenam, I.S.O., upon vacating the position of In the first act the standard of the choral singing was not an electoral basis, guarantees for the confirmation of civil liberty, the abolition of exclusive laws, and the avoidance of repressive measures in respect of proceedings which do not openly and the avoidance of proceedings which do not openly and the confirmation of civil liberty? Our Correspondent in the correspondent in the confirmation about civil liberty? Our Correspondent in the first act the standard of the choral singing was not correspondent in the front to take part in any to Mr. E. Trenam, I.S.O., upon vacating the position of Controller of the Central Telegraph Office and retiring from the Post Office on pension after 49 years' service.

St. Petersburg has noted some significant through the towns of Epping and Harlow. Everywhere the roads were lined with spectators, and whenever a school fronted on to the road fine children were standing to Mrs. Trenam, I.S.O., upon vacating the position of Controller of the Central Telegraph Office and retiring from the Post Office on pension after 49 years' service.

St. Petersburg has noted some significant through the towns of Epping and Harlow. Everywhere the roads were lined with spectators, and whenever a school fronted on to the road fine children were standing to Mrs. Trenam, I.S.O., upon vacating the position of Controller of the Central Telegraph Office and retiring as high, but in the Brocken scene the fugue was capitally the roads were lined with spectators, and whenever a school fronted on to the road fine children were standing to Mrs. Trenam, I.S.O., upon vacating the position of to Mrs. E. Trenam, I.S.O., upon vacating the position of Controller of the Central Telegraph Office and retiring as high, but in the Brocken scene the fugue was capitally and a diamond ring for Mrs. Trenam, I.S.O., upon vacating the position of Controller of the Central Telegraph Office and retiring as high, but in the Brocken scene the fugue was capitally and a diamond ring for Mrs. Trenam, I.S.O., upon vacating the position of the Central Telegraph Office and retiring as hi respect of proceedings which do not openly menace society or the State.—According to a Reuter telegram from St. Petersburg, Count Witte appears to be confident that he will be able to guide the Russian people tranquilly into the to guide the Russian people tranquilly in paths of constitutionalism.—A St. Petersburg not read the Tsan's manifesto, adding that every villagers waved flags from their windows and front his late colleagues. This consisted of a silver salver, a sung. Signora Zaccaria did the parts of Marta and paths of constitutionalism.—A St. Petersburg Correspondent says he is unable to share optimistic expectations regarding the effect of the mistic expectations regarding the effect of the but a few Moderates.—It was announced last but a few Moderates and the promises and the promises and cheered both the King and Colonel Lock—was gardens, and cheered both the King and Colonel Lock—was discust box; a drawing room clock, and a silver photo frame. Mr. A. J. S. Adams made the wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was gardens, and cheered both the King and colonel Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, which was reached at Lock—was allowed by wood, M.P. Harlow Town, wh but a few Moderates.—It was announced last It is a sign of the times when the army seizes on sight. The car went through at a slow rate to allow the 45 years' service, his colleagues presented a silver watch, acting made his impersonation very striking. After the night that M. Pobiedonostzeff, the Procurator the first pretext to show its sympathy with the people to catch a glimpse of the King. Colonel Lock-biscuit-box, and butter-knife.

A concert in aid of the reactionary party in Russia, has resigned. people. It is another sign when the processions which, at the Hertfordshire boundary, Colonel Daniels, are organized like an army with company officers, the chief constable of the county, met the Royal car and superior officers, and a general.

the chief constable of the county, met the Royal car and Covent Garden Theatre. Mme. Melba and all the principal constable of the county of through the main streets of the town, which were pro- artists now performing there, and the chorus and or-The GERMAN EMPEROR's proposal for the with fusely decorated, and a triumphal arch was formed of fire-escape and ladders with the local fire brigade and further particulars will be announced later.

fusely decorated, and a triumphal arch was formed of fire-escape and ladders with the local fire brigade and further particulars will be announced later. Swedish Ministry to withdraw their resignations and remain in office till a final settlement of the province of Chi-li, which was communicated brigades from Dunmow, Safiron Walden, and other neighbouring towns kent the route. Among others to walden, and other neighbouring towns kent the route. Among others to walden, and other neighbouring towns kent the route. Among others to walden, and other neighbouring towns kent the route. Among others to walden, and other neighbouring towns kent the route. Among others to walden, and other neighbouring towns kent the route. Among others to walden, and other neighbouring towns kent the route. Among others to walden, and other neighbouring towns kent the route. Among others to walden, and other neighbouring towns kent the route. by his Minister in Peking to the Emperor and bouring towns kept the route. Among others to welcome were three nominations—namely, Mr. Joseph James, Mr. New Haven, Connecticut, after one performance in that Norway.—The Minister for Foreign Affairs Empress-Dowager of China a week ago, will announced at yesterday's meeting of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the consequences of the Storthing momentarily recall attention to the storthing that most of the Powers had declared their readiness to enter into official relations with Norway. (p. 5)

The proof of the Powers had declared their readiness to enter into official relations with Norway. (p. 5)

The proof of the Powers had declared their of an eventful period in recent Chinese history. It is rather more than four years since, at the Norway in a messenger back by motor-car to express his pleasure at the peace to the late Mr. Mathews.

The proof of an eventful period in recent Chinese history. It is rather more than four years since, at the conclusion of the Boxer disturbances, the Peking of the peace to the late Mr. Mathews.

The conclusion of the greatest publicity to arguments for and against it. The result of all this was that seats for the deputy clerk of the peace to the late Mr. Mathews.

The conclusion of the Boxer disturbances the Peking of the seatest publicity to arguments for and against it. The result of all this was that seats for the deputy clerk of the peace to the late Mr. Mathews.

The conclusion of the Boxer disturbances the peace of the seatest publicity to arguments for and against it. The result of all this was that seats for the deputy clerk of the peace to the late Mr. Mathews.

By permission of the King, the christening ceremony in person and will be the principal sponsor. of handsome porringer will be the King's gift to his godson. Prince Leopold of Battenberg and suite will Holstein in the Orient steamer Ormuz on November 18

The Princess is travelling to Burma via Coylon. Princess Henry of Pless arrived at Victoria left for the German Embassy, Carlton-house-terrace. Princess Hohenlohe arrived in London yesterday from Northampton.

The Duke of Bedford arrived at Woburn Abbey yesterday from Scotland. The Duke of Portland left St. Pancras yester-

The Duke of Abercorn left Euston last evening

The Earl and Countess of Craven arrived in London yesterday from Combe Abbey, Coventry. The Earl of Rothes left Euston yesterday for towards convalescence. Lord Currie passed a restless night on Monday. There was no change in his condition yesterday morning. Lord Balcarres, M.P., left King's-cross yester-

Viscount and Viscountess Chelsea left London Viscountess Encombe is making rapid progress'

Lord Brampton passed a somewhat restless night on Monday. Yesterday morning it was stated that he was decidedly weaker. Lord Brampton passed a somewhat quiet day, and at 10 o'clock last night it was stated early in February, between Mr. Harry Charles Malet, 8th During the day there were a large number of inquirers. Lord Young was to have delivered the opening sequence of the illness of his lordship. His medical advisors will not allow Lord Young to travel.

Lady Euan-Smith still continues in a most is not expected to be able to leave the hospital for weeks. Lady Stratheden and Campbell underwent an operation on Saturday, October 28, at 17, Ainslie-place. Edinburgh. Her ladyship is making satisfactory progress, but will be detained for some weeks at Edinburgh.

Lady Doreen Long left London yesterday for doctor's report is so far satisfactory.

Count Munster arrived in London yesterday

St. Petersburg produced a considerable rise in is needed for many of the required reforms.

Officialdom, stubbornly opposed to reform because able to leave for the country. He is likely to be absent. The marriage

Colonel W. K. Samoyloff, who has been

Mr. Gibson Bowles, M.P., will address the Manchester bankers on November 7 on the "Increase of Woolhampton to-day.

Miss Margot Severn, a young English-soprano, enamel brooches with pearl and diamond centres. Major pastel cloth, and a felt hat with blue feather.

A concert in aid of the sufferers from the will be laid on the shelf again.

have issued for the election of a representative peer of given for a stall. - Every critic went to the Garrick more sixth Earl of Lanesborough.

have already received invitation-cards and who present

Elgar to accept the position of mayor during the ensuing this be attempted, manager and actors will be arrested. year. From the musical point of view the year at Here- The manager of the Garrick Theatre is already under ford will be an important one, as the Three Choirs Festival arrest.—Our Correspondent.

Will take place there in September.

Lady Mary Louise Douglas Hamilton, the pro-chiefly at Dougary-lodge, in the west of Arran. During and Joe Boganny's Lunatic Bakers (95). last night a display of fireworks was given in the village and from the steamers lying in the bay, while a huge bonfire had been lighted on an eminence near the artesian well makers, resisted a claim by one of their late castle. About 9 15 the castle party entered the ball-room. their entrance being heralded by the sound of the pipers. The honour of leading Lady Mary in the grand march fel to Mr. James Allan, of Balnacoale, the occupant of the biggest farm on the island. During intervals in the dance programme the health of Lady Mary and of the Duchess of Hamilton were pledged with great enthusiasm.

W. B. Mitford and Miss Walmesley will take place at the | Upon that, notwithstanding his pain, the applicant stuck Hyde Park Hotel instead of 4, Buckingham-gate, as to the thing, and was afterwards complimented on his

8th Hussars, and cousin of the Right Hon. Sir Edward Malet, Bart., G.C.B., of Wilbury, Wilts, and Miss Mildred Laura Lambert-Swiney, of Stanmore, Canterbury, daughter of Captain H. Stephen-Swiney, late 69th Regi ment, and the late Mrs. Swiney, of the Lymes, Hawk and Mrs. Milvain. Prebendary Montagu Villiers, vicar him that he need not worry, as his half wages would be distressing condition, though the most dangerous of St. Paul's, officiated, assisted by the Rev. W. Sheild, sent to him each week. After a long hearing, his Honour in quarter sessions on the ground that the house ing from a Correspondent in St. Petersburg offer torial integrity and the principle of the open is subject to constant relapses. In any case her recovery given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin and tion granted a stay with a view to an appeal. symptoms have gradually yielded to treatment; but she of Whittingham, Northumberland. The bride, who was awarded the applicant 16s. 4d. per week, but on applicasilver embroidery, with train of old Brussels lace, a wreath of orange blossom, and a Brussels point lace veil. lent by the Countess of Guilford, and she carried a bouquet the respondent denied, and alleged misconduct by the petitioner, which she denied. In the course of the trial, the charge of adultery against the recarriage accident, is progressing favourably, and the Hargrave Pawson, Mrs. Carnegie Pawson, and Mrs. Hard- possess features which may have important results. against the petitioner was withdrawn. His Lordship found that the charges against the respondent had been established, and granted a decree nisi, with costs against the respondent.

with caps of net and Mechlin lace, and carried large promise to do in the United Kingdom the work so in St. Petersburg, arrived at Buckingham-gate early gramny muffs. Mr. W. Hargrave Pawson, twin brother of the bridgeroom, was best man. After the ceremony a collect, which we have in St. Petersburg. Sir Charles spent the bridgeroom, was best man. After the ceremony a collect, which we have in St. Petersburg. Sir Charles spent the bridgeroom, was best man. After the ceremony a collect, which we have in St. Petersburg. Sir Charles spent the bridgeroom, was best man. After the ceremony a collect, with caps of net and Mechlin lace, and carried large

in the frar East which we have

in St. Petersburg. Sir Charles spent the bridgeroom, was best man. After the ceremony a collect, with caps of net and Mechlin lace, and carried large

in the frar East which we have in St. Petersburg. Sir Charles spent the bridgeroom, was best man. After the ceremony a collection in the United Kingdom the work so in St. Petersburg. Sir Charles spent the bridgeroom, was best man. After the ceremony a collection in the United Kingdom the work so

in St. Petersburg. Sir Charles spent the bridgeroom, was best man. After the ceremony a collection in the United Kingdom the work so in St. Petersburg. Sir Charles spent the bridgeroom, was best man. After the ceremony a collection of the bridgeroom of the collection was best man and the intelled by sir Charles spent the bridgeroom of the collection was beli

Sir Lewis M'Iver, M.P., left Victoria yesterday daughter of Mr. Morton Philips, took place yesterday in Sevenoaks Tenants (Limited), Tenant Co-operators Erompton Parish Church. The officiating clergy were the (Limited), &c.? If it does, I am sure the latter societies The sterday and rates remained steady for loans and rible to show as a reason for claiming conthe China Association last night the chair. Maiesty's Chapels Royal and Sub-Almoner to the King, and later in the afternoon Captain and Mrs. Charlest are making will meet with species.

Winsley, Shropshire, with the Hon. Mary Weld-Forester. M. Cavalcanti de Lacerda, who has been only daughter of Lord and Lady Forester, took place offenders and to proclaim an amnesty for all gress, but it may be long before the passive force has arrived in town to take up his new duties. Square. The rite was performed by Bishop Welldon, which his mere issue of the manifesto confers a These difficulties, however, must be faced and and the Isles, who is lying seriously ill, was free from uncle of the bride. A detachment of the 20th Hussars, in review order, lined the aisle during the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, wors a gown of Brussels net over crêpe de chine, draped with Honiton appointed an Attaché to the Russian Embassy in London, lace, belonging to her mother, a train of silver cloth veiled with Brussels net, with a cluster of true lovers' Mr. Wyndham, M.P., and Countess Grosvenor knots at the end, and an old Brussels lace veil over a wreath of orange blossoms. Her ornaments included a single row of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Her train was carried by her two nephews, Masters Cecil and Wolstan Weld-Forester, in pink satin suits with frilled collars and cuffs of soft white satin, with paste buttons, Mr. Otto Beit arrived in London yesterday and pink kid shoes. She was attended by five brides-Mr. Luang Chamnong Dithakar has been appointed Secretary to the Siamese Legation in London.

Mr. W. Grasson Tank of the United Clair Miss Ashton, and Miss Katherine Weld-Forester, Mr. W. Greaves Lord, of the United Club, niece of the bride. The four elder ones were dresses of speaks at Skelmersdale and Mr. C. W. Nicholson at rose pink crêpe de chine, with pleated skirts and high pink satin waist belts. The bride's little niece was in

The marriage of Captain James Whitaker. of

ROYAL OPERA,

success of last night it is unlikely that the beautiful work

MRS. WARREN'S PROFESSION."

It is notified in last night's Gazette that writs performance, and that yesterday as much as $30 (£6) were Ireland to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the or less prejudiced in favour of the play. Mr. Comstock is not loved here, and there was a splendid opportunity to The hon, secretary of the national memorial to rail at the provincialism of provincial cities. Mrs. Mr. Gladstone announces that, in view of the very limited | Warren's Profession, however, was too strong even for space at the disposal of the memorial committee, no more the most prejudiced critic, and there is not a favourable cards of admission can be issued for the unveiling of the notice in to-day's papers. Mr. Shaw will doubtless be London monument on Saturday next. Only those who delighted to find that he has at last succeeded in shocking them at the entrance to the enclosed area can be play is regarded as dull and stupid, as well as indecent; but that is the verdict of many of the critics. At a private meeting of the Hereford Town The Police Commissioner of this city, Mr. McAdoo, Council, yesterday, it was decided to ask Sir Edward has forbidden further performances of the play. Should prietor of the Island of Arran, attains her majority to- (9 35) is thew Spanish dancer who appeared for the first! day, and celebrations have been arranged in honour of time on Monday evening. Her dances are set in a " new; the event. Last night a great bell was given at Brodick romantic Spanish scena." The Spanish stories we see in Castle, and to-day Lady Mary is to be presented with pantomine are all very much alike. In this, as in many, addresses from the Buteshire County Council, the Arran others, there are brigands and a brigand-in-chief, who Society of Glasgow, and from tenants and residents on loves and carries off the inn-keeper's daughter; there is concessions from rulers deaf to appeal and imbeen exercised hitherto in favour of retention.

ALHAMBRA THEATRE.—Senorita Maria la Bella

Berlin, and drove to the German Embassy in Carltonthe estate. At night another big ball will take place at follows the pair; and there is, of course, the imakeeper's the castle. The greate invited number 1000 and the limit and there is, of course, the imakeeper's the castle. The guests invited number 1,000 and the daughter, who is stabled by her respectable lover at the company is representative of every family on the island. | end of an alluring and defiant dance in the fair at Seville... The house party at Brodick Castle who took part in last | We feel that, so far us the story goes, we have seen it all night's ball include the following:-Lord and Lady Alice | before, though the scenery and the dresses, which they Stanley, Lady Mary Acheson, Lady Theo. Acheson, Mr. do very well at the Alhambra, and the spirited, if familiar, and Mrs. Athole Hay, Miss Brocklehurst, Miss C. Von pantomime make it worth seeing. But the heart of Besser, Colonel Vesey Dawson, the Marquis of Graham, the matter is the two dances danced by Senorita Maria la The Gaekwar of Baroda, who is at present on Captain Donald Cameron of Lochiel, Colonel H. De Bella in the second scene, the fair at Seville. The a visit to Berlin, was the guest of the British Ambassador, Pledge, 19th Hussars, Captain W. Hibbert, Mr. Mont- Panaderos reminds us of the Maxixe lately seen here, Sir Frank Lascelles, at dinner at the British Embassy on gomery Campbell, Mr. R. Patrick, Mr. George Dalziel, though no doubt the Panaderos is the older dance; and and Mr. John Murray of Taymount. Among other guests Mr. George Byng, who has composed special music for it, are the Master of Ruthven and the Hon. Mrs. Ruthven, has followed the idea of the music of the Maxixe. It is a Lieutenant-Colonel Blackburn of Killearn, Dr. Robert- double pas de fascination, chase and flight, allurement and son-Fullarton of Kilmichael, Sheriff Martin, Chief escape, and both Senorita la Bella and Senor Miralles, Constable Harding, Colonel Windsor Stuart, and who dances it with her, get the fullest grace and meaning Mr. Hugh Duncan, the Conservative candidate for out of it. After the Panaderos comes the Tango, a sold Bute, and Mrs. Duncan. Brodick is gaily decorated for Senoritala Bella, some of which is rather difficult to the Council retain a free hand in regard to the additional land for the acquisition of which the syndicate propose to seek Parliamentary powers.

The Duke and Duchess of Marlborough left been wrung from him by pressure is a great agreement with the same policy, and that nothing pheasants. The propose to seek Parliamentary powers been wrung from him by pressure is a great agreement with the same policy, and that nothing pheasants. The propose to seek Parliamentary powers but difficulties of detail have prevented the Vork on Monday.

The Duke and Duchess of Marlborough left day in the coverts in pursuit of the pheasants. The sport was good. The ball last night took pheasants. The poundant with the same policy, and there is no most of it. A word must be said for the partonine of that sound artist Signor G. Rosi. The "Urbamora" of the Urbamora" of the Urbamora" of the Urbamora" of the Urbamora" of the Urbamora of Urbamora. on the lawn behind the castle. It consisted of a ball- that sound artist Signor G. Rosi. The "Urbanora" Earl and Countess Cawdor arrived at the room 120ft. by 40ft., supper-room, 100ft. by 24ft., and (100) has some good new pictures—of the oyster trade at meeting at the Mansion-house in support of Cambridge University Lav show that they been taken on the road to liberty, but the people The carrying out of such a measure on our part half yesterday.

First Lord of the Admiralty's official residence in White- commodious cloak-room and dressing-room accommodation. The ball-room had a private entrance from the returns home, with a fortune made in the goldfields, in Settlement in Camberwell. The Bishop of Southschief the Rev W I Convisore the Lord Chief achieved, and that they can, if the need arises, probably more comprehensive than that demanded Monday. He was yesterday, however, making slow but Duchess of Devonshire. Her father was the 12th Duke dinner at a well-known restaurant and a visit to the of Hamilton, and the present holder of the dukedom, Alhambra. The night scenes in this last series, one of The Earl of Minto, the new Viceroy of India, which, by the way, is the oldest in Scotland, is only a which shows the ballet in full swing, were taken at night An Inquest was held yesterday at the St. that this very knowledge will now suggest to the and in Northern China generally. With regard to morning by the 11 o'clock P. and O. boat train express for fourth duke. In addition to being proprietor of Arran, theatre; and are the first examples of the kind to be Lady Mary is also owner of Easton-park, Suffolk. During shown. Other good turns are Elliston Webb, tenor her stay on the island Lady Mary has made her residence vocalist (830), the Ten Loonies with their music (840), WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT.—At the > workmen, named Punyer, for compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act. Mr. Hogg, who appeared for the applicant, said his client, who was 35 years of age and had been in the Army 13 years, entered the service of the respondents, and on February 13 was helping to lift.a heavy weight of three tons. Suddenly he realized he had strained his hip, and he called out, but his mate shouted, The reception after the marriage of Captain | "For God's sake don't leave go or it will kill me." pluck. On the 15th he returned to work, but whilst carry-A marriage is arranged, and will take place ing a heavy piece of wood he slipped and fell, again injuring himself. He stood against a wall, but yielding to the call of his mates, he went to their assistance at a winch, but his hip gave way, and he fell to the ground, having to be picked up and carried to the hospital. He was in the hospital 17 weeks, and underwent three operations, and he was now unable to work. Down to October the respondents paid the man about helf wages, but then they stopped the payment, and declared that the applicant had met with his injuries in a fight. The applicant was Yesterday afternoon, at St. Paul's Church, therefore obliged to sue, and the respondents now set up Knightsbridge, the marriage took place between Mr. the defence that no notice was given of the accident, and John Jervis Pawson, 12th Royal Lancers, and Miss Dulcie no claim in law was made within six months. And all Mary Milvain, daughter of the Judge-Advocate-General | that, added counsel, after visiting the sick man and telling CO-PARTNERSHIP TENANTS' HOUSING COUNCIL.—

outhwark County Court, yesterday, Messrs. Isler and Co.,

The chief registrar of Friendly Societies (Mr. J. D. Stuart of gardenias and foliage. For ornament she wore a string Sim) referred in his annual report in appreciative term of pearls. There were three bridesmaids. Miss Jessie to the Co-partnership Tenants' Housing Council, and the Bainbridge, Miss Beatrice Bellringer, and Miss Dorothy following correspondence has passed between him and Leon, who were attired in white chiffon with white tulle Mr. Frederick Litchfield, the organizing secretary of the veils, and they wore pink tourmaline and diamond council. Mr. Litchfield wrote:-" Dear Sir.-In your pendants which, with sheaves of Lilium lancifolium, were report for the year ended December 31, 1904, you state wick, who were picture dresses of rose chiffon velvet, refer to the Agricultural Organization Society, which is revolt may be excused for failing to see the nation, to make the most of the great openings which the new era promises. The terms of the Palace.

In the course of their drive they visited Buckingham uncle, had placed at their disposal.

In the course of their drive they visited Buckingham uncle, had placed at their disposal. the tenants' housing societies now being formed by the The marriage of Captain Charles Seymour, son Co-partnership Tenants' Housing Council, such as 'Garden' of the late Lord Albert Seymour, with Miss Mary Philips, City Tenants (Limited), 'Ealing Tenants (Limited),'

Dean of Rochester, the Rev. Lord Victor Seymour, and will be grateful to you for making this quite clear, as The Right Hon. W. J. and Mrs. Pirrie have the Rev. A. W. Gough. The bride, who was given away some of them were started before the Garden City move-The Engineering Supplement, on "The National Laboratory" (p. 285); "The South Allay suspicions so justly entertained. Some to be more keenly realized and acted on I London to attend the Privy Council. Mr. Lemieux is Day Miss Careful and Miss Constance Seymour, Miss Elaine issued was certainly intended to include the privy Council. Mr. Lemieux is Day Miss Careful and Miss Elaine issued was certainly intended to include the privy Council. thing more than words is needed at such a Not all the obstacles, of course, have been accompanied by Mrs. Lemieux and her sister, Miss There anoths to be something ton.

| Course | Co Green, King's Royal Rifle Corps, was best man. A to-day. Every one who has the interests of the working

The Rev. Dr. Sheppard, Sub-Dean of his reception was afterwards held at the Hans-crescent Hotel, classes at heart must hope, as I do that the efforts they