ferred to Berlin.

INTELLIGENCE,

THE QUEBEC FETES.

REVIEW BY THE PRINCE.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.) QUEBEC, July 24.

The military review to-day on the Plains of Majesty the King:— Abraham was unquestionably the most imposing famous battles of the world.

Wolfe fell and the mound on which Montcalm some thousands of spectators, while the broad person. plain stretched across to the cliffs beneath occupying every point of vantage, and thrilled gress and prosperity." with enthusiasm at the great national celebration visitors from abroad. Converging on the central freedom and self-government." plain itself came a steady stream of military and naval forces, of all arms, arriving by various routes and massing themselves in broad squares built up their magnificent Dominion." and ribbons of colour. Such was the scene the spectator looked upon when arriving about graphed:-10 o'clock.

THE INSPECTION.

ment of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, left the Citadel and proceeded to the review ground over the full length of the plains, stopping on his way at Wolfe's monument. Here were drawn up the British Army and Navy veterans! from Boston, Massachusetts, and from Quebec. Dismounting, the Prince deposited at the base of the monument a wreath to the memory of the earth's greatest ocean, whose waters extend to hero of 1759. Then he continued his journey, both our shores. Australia prays that your and, prompt to the instant, at 10 30 a flourish of trumpets announced the arrival of the Prince, and at once the Royal Standard flew out in front of the grand stand, while the bands played the National Anthem.

. Lord Roberts, who carried his Fieldstaff, he rode eastward across the plain till near Wolfe's Monument. Going first along the front ' of the troops, which extended over, perhaps, three-quarters of a mile, and then back' through the centre to the troops drawn up ! nearest the cliffs overlooking the river, the Prince made an inspection of the whole force. As he rode along the lines the bands played, taking up in turn the tune "Oh Canada, My Country." Then the bands gradually passed in front of the grand stand, to which the Prince returned amidst immense cheering. Dismounting. Drill-hall. he ascended to the Royal enclosure on the grand | stand, where gathered a distinguished company, including the Governor-General, the Government-house party, Vice-President Fairbanks Admiral Jauréguiberry, the visiting admirals, and the official guests of the Dominion. To the agreeable surprise of everybody Lord Strathcona was among the number, having arrived from England this morning. He was loudly cheered on taking his seat in the Royal enclosure.

THE BATTLEFIELDS FUND.

marked the culmination of the splendid inspiralency, said :-- two contending races won equal and imperishable are passed. glory, may be acquired for the people of the Dominion and preserved, under the special super enormous imports of silver, which have depressed of this telegram at Yildiz Kiosk was that of a lions refused to march against the insurgent vision of the Sovereign, as a permanent shrine of the exchange, prove that India is rich enough, thunderbolt, and it produced the utmost con-soldiers, while another battalion revolted union and peace. I place in your hands, as the in spite of the famine, to purchase the metal sternation and commotion. The Sultan imme- altogether. Three hundred officers assembled in representative of the Sovereign, the charge of largely when the price is low. The monsoon condiately summoned the Grand Vizier, who is an the public garden at Monastir yesterday evening the strike, only two of them being actual this sacred ground, which it is my pleasure to be tinues good, and the improved prospects should Albanian, and asked him to explain the astound- and caused the military band to play the strikers. able to present to you on the 300th birthday of stimulate trade in the autumn and remove anxiety ing attitude of the Albanians. Ferid Pasha, "Marseillaise." Quebec as a gift to the people of Canada and of regarding the exchange. the Crown."

His Excellency in reply said:—

"As the Governor-General of Canada and in the names of the Government and the people of ' the Dominion I accept this sacred trust which your Royal Highness, Heir to the Throne, has graciously placed in my hands."

A MARCH PAST.

The Prince then remounted and proceeded to take up a position at the saluting post with the Governor-General, Lord Roberts, and General Otter, for the march past, which immediately began. First came a fine detachment of French sailors, preceded by the band of the Léon Gambetta, who were received with great enthusiasm. At once followed the band of the New outposts of the two factions. Hampshire with 300 United States sailors. With a midshipman bearing the Stars and Stripes, they! made a most effective appearance and were welcomed with equally hearty applause.

illustrating Great Britain's naval power which is too seldom seen in Canada. Company after company, headed by their admirals and officers, 2,500 British sailors filed past the Prince and the spectators. The special compliments paid by Lord Roberts to two Canadian regiments, the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, of Kingston, and the Queen's Own Rifles, of Toronto, by his | heading them in the march past, evoked unbounded enthusiasm. The time employed in passing the saluting post was nearly two hours. The review closed with a gallop by the Canadian Field Artillery across the full length of the

The departure of the Prince from the ground led to a new outburst of enthusiastic cheering. His Royal Highness, escorted by Dragoons, proceeded to the battlefield of Ste. Foy, where Murray was defeated by Levis in 1760. Here the Prince deposited a wreath on the Monument aux Braves erected some years ago as a memorial to the fallen soldiers of both races. After long hours in the saddle the Prince entered a motorcar and worked his way through the dense masses of the populace two miles to the Citadel. A luncheon given in honour of the Prince by the Mayor, Sir George Garneau, with a State ball to-night completes the engagements of the day.

A STATE DINNER. Lord and Lady Grey last night gave a State dinner at which the distinguished guests, the visiting admirals, the members of the Federal Cabinet, the lieutenant-governors, and members of the Battlefields Commission had the honour of meeting the Prince. Afterwards there was a large reception, giving an opportunity to was used on both sides. The horsemen on the the guests to witness the illuminations and fire side of the Shah have been guilty of the most works from a position commanding the whole city | repellent acts of barbarism. and river, with an outlook perhaps unequalled in the world.

Terraces festooned in coloured lights, and the started for their posts-

AND FOREIGN spiencia pyrotecumo display mon vio acceptant of Levis opposite produced an effect of extraordinary and impressive brilliancy not easily forgotten. Dufferin-terrace, which easily permits of the circulation of many thousands of people, presented for hours a stream of moving colour, the uniforms, bright dresses and pageant costumes surpassing, in the judgment of experts, anything seen at Italian carnivals.

MESSAGE FROM THE KING.

sent in connexion with the Tercentennial cele- has issued an Iradé restoring the Constitution, bration:—

The King replied as follows: under the most favourable conditions of land and in whose welfare I am deeply interested, and to however, are unknown. sky. Around the plain were multitudes of people whom I wish an ever-increasing measure of pro-

Mr. Asquith telegraphed: presence of the Heir to the Throne and of the Government to our colleagues and fellow-subjects, during the last two days. greatest living military hero of the British the Government and people of the great Dominion nation. The grand-stand from an early hour of Canada. The Dominion, as to summer to the grand-stand from an early hour living evidence of the foresight and endurance of newspapers this morning publishes an Imperial elections in accordance with the existing constitutional prescriptions. The correspondent points of Canada. The Dominion, as it stands to-day, is began to be filled with an assembly of the most | Samuel de Champlain, and bears witness to the

> From Simla, Lord Minto offered "hearty congratulations and best wishes to the Canadian Provincial Valis and independent Mutessarifs, freedom of the Press and of public meeting, The Governor-General of Australia tele-

"Australia greeting Canada, the sister and senior Dominion of the Empire, welcomes the The Prince of Wales, escorted by a detach- celebration of the third century of adventurous advance. In the early days the triple tides of Sultan. gallant pioneers from the Old World, British. French, and Loyalists, entered into the rich heritage of rivers, lakes, and forests in your eastern regions by the red routes of war. To-day, speeding westward by rail across the prairies, towering mountains, and sunny slopes, Marshal Omer Rushdi Pasha, the new Minister of you are peopling a new world bordering on the War. numbers may multiply, your unity strengthen, and your prosperity increase along all the red routes

Other congratulatory messages have been Without any delay the Prince began the Lord Crewe, and the Governors or Premiers received from Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, inspection. Attended by the Governor-General of New Zealand, Newfoundland, Cape Colony, Marshal's baton, and surrounded by a brilliant These manifestations of Imperial interest in the celebrations have occasioned great satisfaction.

> PROGRAMMES FOR TO-DAY AND SUNDAY. The following are the programmes for the next two days of the fêtes in Quebec:-

the Pageant on the Plains. Lacrosse match by and orderly crowd. Great enthusiasm prevails. two championship teams. Evening.—Band concerts on the Terrace, in the Victoria-park, and at Boulevard Langelier. Gala concert at the Sunday.--" Messe Solennelle" on the Plains of Abraham. Service at the English Cathedral, at which the Prince of Wales will be present.

INDIA.

THE DEBATE IN PARLIAMENT.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.) SIMLA, July 24.

Then followed the short ceremonial which Budget in the House of Commons excites little the suddenness of yesterday's important modification of the tion of Lord Grey for the nationalization of the interest, following so closely upon the debate tions in the composition of the Cabinet startled reference is made to the recent vicissitudes of battlefields. The Prince, addressing his Excel- initiated by Lord Curzon in the House of Lords. the whole world here and is the subject of much the Persian Parliament, and it is pointed out that The sanguine anticipations of Mr. Buchanan "It affords me the greatest pleasure to hand regarding the results of the Decentralization till the last moment, and was preparing to pro- its first session. over to your Excellency, as the representative of Commission will scarcely be endorsed in India, ceed to the Porte to attend the usual weekly the Crown in Capada, the sum of $450,000 but the Government and the public are prepared Cabinet Council when he was relieved of his (£90,000), which, through the patriotism of British to wait patiently for the publication of the office. citizens in all parts of Canada and the Empire, report of the Commission. It is presumed that and the generosity of French and American its recommendations will be submitted to the Grand Vizier was the telegram from the serious nature. The town is surrounded by the sympathizers, has been entrusted to me, in order consideration of the Government of India and of Albanians to the Sultan, transmitted from Uskub, Resna insurgents, and the news of their occu-

THE CONVICTION OF MR. TILAK.

BOMBAY, July 24.* The markets are closed as a mark of sympathy has scoured the town in order to discover an prestige. artilleryman capable of setting the fuses of his remarkable in the light of the conferring upon Then began what perhaps most thrilled the 8-centimètre gun. Judging from such rounds him of the highest German decoration of the in the hands of the Young Turks and spectators among the events of the day—a sight as have been fired to-day, he has succeeded in Order of the Black Eagle on the eve of the change Marshal Osman Pasha was carried off from there improving the fuse-setting. He has also issued a in the Grand Vizierate. This high mark of dis- last night without violence and taken to Okhrida, proclamation in the name of the Constitution to tinction on the part of the Kaiser, owing to its where he has been placed under the surveillance the inhabitants of the Davachia quarter, warning synchronizing with Ferid Pasha's impending of Niazi Bey. The Vali of Monastir has resigned. all peaceful citizens to leave the town, and declaring that they will remain there at their own peril. His emissaries also continue to collect the sinews of war from those of the inhabitants who are reputed to be wealthy. The town is very weary of the situation. The poor are living entirely on a diet of fruit, which, luckily, is plentiful. The Armenian Bishop, acting for his community, and a committee of leading merchants have joined in sending a telegram of supplication to the Shah, praying him in the name of a common humanity either to restore order or to effect a compromise with the anti-Royalists.

PERSIAN APPEALS TO THE SHAH FROM TABRIZ.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

TABRIZ, JULY 24.

The inhabitants of Tabriz have appealed to the Shah through the European Legations in Teheran. It is the cry of a very miserable township. The Royalists in their quarter have placed in position a 9in. mortar against Sata Khan's

THE RECENT FIGHTING.

(FROM OUR PERSIAN CORRESPONDENT.) TEHERAN, JULY 24.

All the wires connecting Teheran with the quarter of Tabriz occupied by the Royal faction have been cut. The popular party did their utmost yesterday to hold their ground. The casualties are reported to have numbered 200, and artillery

Disorders are reported at Resht and Ispahan. Lack of funds is telling on the Royalist camp

YOUNG TURKEY MOVEMENT.

A CONSTITUTION GRANTED.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

The following telegraphic messages have been from Constantinople, announces that the Sultan which is described as the Sultan's work, and From the Governor-General of Canada to his ordering the Valis to proceed immediately to the election of members of a Chamber of Deputies.

"The people of Canada, assembled to celebrate | Another telegram, received this morning from proof of the interest which your Majesty has arriving from Macedonia relate that the same ever manifested towards your Majesty's Canadian thing happened yesterday at Veles, the soldiers, received his death-wound were full in sight. subjects, who, on this great and historic occasion, officers, and crowd clapping their hands and at Gievgyeli.

From the same source I learn that three officers "Please convey to the Mayor and citizens of have been killed at Salonika by Young Turks, my full of significance. Little (kutchuk) Said, as he then Abdul Hamid did not venture formally to abrowhich run the waters of the St. Lawrence. Quebec my congratulations and good wishes for informant adding that he had seen a score of is called, who has become Grand Vizier in the gate the Constitution. It was declared to be "sus-Beyond the great river were the mountains, the joyous celebration of the 300th anniversary officers placarding the streets with revolutionary place of Ferid Pasha, is, to say the least, decidedly pended," and suspended it has remained for 30 years. dimly blue in the distance and topped this morn of the foundation of their city by Samuel de appeals and threatening the police with death if less partial in his foreign sympathies than the ing by bright clouds piled along the horizon. Champlain. I am much gratified to learn of their they ventured to destroy the placards. Near latter. Kiamil Pasha, who was at one time Grand There was glorious sunshine, but the heat was have sent to represent me on this great occasion. Ing the Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that some observers of Near Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that the Spiltane Pasha as prisoner, who was jeered by the Comprehensible that the Com cordial reception of the Prince of Wales, whom I Uskub, my informant said, he met a train carry- Vizier, is Anglophil and Liberal. It is, therefore, tempered by a pleasant breeze. The monuments I received with pleasure the renewed assurances crowds. In the main street of Uskub yesterday Eastern affairs should have credited the Sultan of history planted amid splendid scenery lay of loyalty on the part of my Canadian subjects, several murders were committed. The victims, with having made a move in the direction of the Sultan's action was a clever re-enactment of the government. This view will have proved to be comedy of 1876 in order to paralyse the coming correct if the Sultan, as reported by this evening's "On the occasion of the 300th anniversary of the reform proposals, the prevailing belief now is that Temps, has convoked a Parliament. The Pera and the illustration of Canada's growing place in founding of Quebec I send the warm congratulated before the unexpected correspondent of the Temps telegraphs that an the world. The occasion was honoured by the tions and hearty good wishes of his Majesty's success achieved by the Young Turkey movement Imperial Iradé convokes the Chamber of Deputies

> CONSTANTINOPLE, JULY 24.* which the Sultan has elaborated. This Iradé has been communicated to the together with orders for the holding of elections. The Grand Vizier, acting in pursuance of the pulsory education. Iradé, has addressed to the Provincial authorities a circular telegram convening a Chamber Deputies, the mode of formation of which is determined in the organic statute, which is officially after all, possibly end in a compromise instead of described as the Illustrious Institution of the a catastrophe. A sanguinary revolution never

RECEPTION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

BELGRADE, JULY 24.* proclamation of the Sultan granting a Constitution has caused great rejoicing among the people with 21 gun-shots from the fort. In Monastir where the news has also been received, joy and enthusiasm prevail, the shops are shut, and the political prisoners, including 43 Servians, have been released.

SALONIKA, JULY 24.* An Imperial Firman restoring the Constitution of 1876 was read here to-day in the presence of Saturday.—Afternoon.—State performance of the civil and military authorities to an immense

> THE MINISTERIAL CHANGES. (FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, JULY 23. The appointment of Said Pasha as Grand Vizier is favourably viewed in Turkish and European by the police. It is doubted whether the Ministerial changes will be effectual in calming the military agitation in Macedonia.

CONSTANTINOPLE, JULY 23.* Pasha knew nothing of the impending changes Pasha was a member, was allowed to lapse after taken the Bessa-namely, the oath in favour of a pying the town and Government buildings was Regarding the financial position, the recent re-establishment of the Constitution. The effect expected at any moment last night. Two battahowever, declined to give his opinion without the presence of the other members of the Cabinet. and 95 cases of ammunition, and 100 soldiers and Thereupon the Sultan turned to his favourite ten officers deserted. Similar outbreaks have Pasha's native country.

Sata Khan, however, has not been idle. He Pashas implies the return of British influence and

The downfall of Ferid Pasha is all the more! general view being that it was intended as a and the Constitution has been proclaimed demonstration in the hope of consolidating his | Monastir. shaken position.

Kiamil Pashas have been compelled at different by numbers of officers—including the aides-detimes to have recourse to British asylum and camp of Mushir Pasha and Hilmi Pasha protection against the intrigues of the Palace announcing the proclamation of the Constitution, officials. The former took refuge at the British and these pronouncements are hailed by the Embassy some years ago, and the latter fied to the British Consulate-General at Smyrna January, 1907.

THE SULTAN'S IRADÉ AND REFORM IN MACEDONIA.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

ST. PETERSBURG, JULY 24.

The news that a Constitution has been proclaimed in Turkey has taken everybody here completely by surprise. Even at the Foreign Office, where the appointment of Said Pasha as Grand Vizier was regarded as an indication that the Sultan was inclined to go a long way on the path of concessions, the latest development of the Turkish crisis was not anticipated. The very the receipt of the momentous intelligence.

ally conveyed to the European Cabinets, and I Constitution. In the meantime the concentration of am informed on good authority that the proposals Russian troops on the Pruth assumed formidable proporhave secured entire approval at Berlin. The fact tions; the Protocol of London urging Turkey to disarm that all the Powers concerned are in accord was received by the Porte; the European Conference in possibly influenced the Sultan to give way to the Constantinople, having proved a signal failure, broke up, demands of the Young Turkey movement. The and with it the Concert of Europe. The elections for maintenance of accord is considered essential in the Turkish Parliament, nevertheless, took place order to keep the Sultan to his new policy.

FRENCH IMPRESSIONS. (FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

and inspiring display of the kind ever witnessed the tercentenary of the foundation of Quebec, Monastir, reported that yesterday, in the presence in the telegrams from Salonika and Monastir Funum and began to prepare an Address in reply to the in Canada. Your readers must picture to them— present their humble duty to your Majesty, and of the Vali, the garrison, the authorities, and a has made a great impression in what is left in Speech from the Throne. selves the scene on the site of one of the most desire to thank your Majesty for the honour done large crowd, Midhat's Constitution was pro- Paris of the political and diplomatic world. mous battles of the world.

The monument which marks the spot where them by the presence here to-day of the Prince of claimed as a fundamental law of the Wales. They see in this gracious act a fresh Empire amidst popular jubilation. Travellers them by the presence here to-day of the Prince of claimed as a fundamental law of the Things are going more rapidly than was expected.

them by the presence here to-day of the Prince of claimed as a fundamental law of the Things are going more rapidly than was expected. —that is to say, more rapidly than was expected May 24 martial law was proclaimed. A month later the were stoned by a mob of 2,000 people. After by those unacquainted with Balkan affairs, who Parliament was abruptly closed, and although it giving a warning they opened fire, and the crowd are, of course, the large majority. Those, on the independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the Sultan, and he courseld independent attitude again alarmed the sultan again at a course at Behind that one saw the Citadel. Directly in hasten to renew the expression of their unalter—shouting "Long live the liberty of the country! other hand, who have always thought the situation took advantage of the arrival of the British Fleet for the front was the grand stand, built to accommodate able devotion to your Majesty's Throne and Down with the Sultan! "Similar events occurred in south-eastern Europe deserving of close atten- protection of his capital against a Russian advance in south-eastern Europe deserving of close attention are less surprised.

Anglo-Russian understanding, and with being in-Whereas the first impression here was that the clined to entertain some idea of constitutional panied by M. Pichon, Minister for Foreign who were stationed near, fired a volley down the in the form provided by the Constitution of 1876. A circular telegram, sent this morning to the pro-Iradé ordaining the assembling of a Chamber of tutional prescriptions. The correspondent points the President, who returned the visit on board distinguished Canadians, in addition to the world that peace and prosperity are the fruits of Deputies in accordance with the new Constitution out that the Turkish Constitution promulgated in December, 1876, provides for a responsible Ministry, a Senate, a Chamber of Deputies, the Judges appointed for life, and primary and com-The present highly complicated situation, which is generally recognized to exist, with a certain amount of danger for peace, may thus, formed part of the programme of the Young Turks, who, on the contrary, appear to regard the question The city is now perfectly normal and tranquil of the person of the Sultan as secondary, provided The Sultan attended the Selamlik as usual to-day, real constitutional government. The well-known | being attended in the Imperial carriage by Young Turk, Ahmed Riza, residing in Paris, has, indeed, informed a representative of the Petit Parisien that what he and his party demand before all is the restoration of the Turkish Parliament as established by the Constitution of 1876, which has now, apparently, been revived by the Sultan. Cipher telegrams from Uskub report that an They are sceptical with regard to the reforms extra edition of the Official Gazette containing a proposed by England and Russia, while Ahmed Riza asked his interlocutor whether he was quite Richelieu during the Thirty Years' War. They sion to Mr. Papenfus, resigned. at Kossovo, where the proclamation was hailed exception were truly and sincerely desirous that also refer to the influence of French thought, order and peace should reign in Macedonia. frankly admitted that he himself was not sure. Meanwhile, the announcement that the Young Turkey movement has been joined by 10,000

Albanians, who concentrated at Verisovitch, and who are marching on Uskub, is not the best omen, particularly as, according to what I hear, they have declared themselves favourable to the nomination as Sultan of another member of the present reigning family.

> GERMAN OPINION. (FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Although the announcement that the Sultan intends to summon a House of Representatives! reached the Bourse in time to relieve the pressure The report of the discussion of the Indian invariably sudden and frequently mexpected, ultimately prove to have won as decisive a victory comment. Even the late Grand Vizier Ferid in 1877 Midhat Pasha's Parliament, of which Said

> THE DISAFFECTION IN THE ARMY. CONSTANTINOPLE, JULY 23.*

At Okhrida, the Young Turks seized 900 rifles Council urging the Government to appoint a Intelligence has been received from Salonika It is not believed that foreign influences have to the effect that the revolutionary movement is played a part this time in the bringing about of beginning to manifest itself throughout the Serres the changes, which were dictated exclusively by district, where the Young Turks are very active the exigencies of the internal situation. The in visiting the heads of the Christian comchanges, however, affect the influence of the munities and acquainting them with the object Powers at Constantinople. The removal of Ferid of the rising—the re-establishment of the Con-Since yesterday there has been a cessation of Pasha means a serious blow to Germany's excep-stitution, and, pending that, the formation of a firing, or rather armed inactivity between the tional position of influence on the Bosporus, while provisional Government. To this end they solicit the entry into the Cabinet of Said and Kiamil | the support of the Christians of all denominations.

OSMAN PASHA CARRIED OFF. SALONIKA, July 23.*

Advices from Monastir state that the town is dismissal from office, is much commented on, the Two thousand soldiers have joined the insurgents, The whole people is being won over to the Con-

It is interesting to note that both Said and stitutional movement. Speeches are being made crowd with shouts of "Long Live Liberty." The Constitution has been practically proclaimed already; it will doubtless be proclaimed officially to-morrow after prayers. Fears are entertained for the safety of Hilmi Pasha, Inspector-General of the three Rumelian vilayets, and of other high Turkish officials.

> REPORTED MUTINY AT USKUB. BELGRADE, July 24.*

A telegram from Uskub states that the entire garrison there has mutinied, and that Albanians are marching upon the town.

THE TURKISH PARLIAMENT OF 1876-7.

suddenness of the event precludes expression of himself confronted with a situation of the utmost increase the revenue, and he proposed to tax any well-defined comment except that the Govern-gravity, owing to the state of his European provinces incomes of over £150 in the case of unmarried ment will continue to await further developments. and the interest taken in them by Europe, not to speak persons and of over £240 in the case of married A high official said:—" For Russia and England, of the war with Servia and Montenegro. In the beginning people. He also intended to place an impost on who have been at such pains to uphold the Con- of December, 1876, a European conference was held in the unimproved value of land and to increase the and Treasurer, said that he took a most serious stitution in Persia, the news cannot be disagree- his capital to put matters straight. It was an utter failure, wharf dues. This new taxation was expected to able, although it may, as in Persia's case, imply and is chiefly remarkable for the attempt which the Sultan realize £136,000. The military operations in further trouble." M. Isvolsky left this morning made to impress the delegates by appointing the reformer | Zululand had cost £73,000. Owing to a conwith the Imperial family en route for Reval before | Midhat Pasha Grand Vizier and proclaiming a Constitut | templated reduction in expenditure, tion. By this proclamation Parliamentary institutions Treasurer anticipated a small surplus during th The draft of the Anglo-Russian proposals for were set up and every sort of liberty conferred on his current year. It was proposed to raise a loan t All the large public buildings with the ships here. For the same reason the reactionary reforms in Macedonia was to have been completed people. Two months, however, had not elapsed before cover reproductive expenditure. The total debt in the river outlined in electric fire, the Governors recently appointed have not yet in a few days for reference by Russia to the Abdul Hamid showed the insincerity of his promises by of the Colony was £21,000,000, chiefly secured on every penny obtainable was insufficient. Powers. Its contents have already been inform- arresting and banishing Midhat Pasha, the author of the reproductive works.

Anglo-Russian rapprochement, will be trans- March 19, 1877, the Sultan convoked them to the Palace latter were obliged to fire in self-defence. promises of liberal reforms and of military and naval native police were injured. Quiet was ultimately reorganization. On the following day the Senators and restored. The serious news from the Near East contained Deputies took the oath and their seats in the Dar-el-

On April 23 Russia declared war, whereupon the Sultan A party of four British soldiers and one police telegraphed to his generals in command on the Danube official were returning to headquarters, when they and in Anatolia a high-sounding proclamation, and on The Ministerial changes at Constantinople were Parliament was dissolved on February 14, 1878.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

STOCKHOLM, JULY 24. The President of the French Republic, accom-Affairs, and attended by a numerous suite, road, which was packed with rioters, causing arrived here to-day. The battleship Vérité, con- heavy casualties in dead and wounded, who are veying M. Fallières, and the escorting squadron now being brought in. anchored at 4 this morning at Waxholm, the The workmen in the great Indian Peninsular draught of the battleship preventing its proceed- shops have also struck, and the trouble is spreading further up the inlet to Stockholm. Here the ing to the outlying mill districts. All the avail-King of Sweden met the French squadron in his able military have been called out, including the yacht and went on board the Vérité to welcome Volunteer Rifles and Light Horse. the Royal yacht. The President then went on board the Cassini, and both vessels, escorted by bombarded the magistrate and police with Swedish men-of-war, steamed into Stockholm. The heavy stones and other missiles before the Volum-King and the President landed at the quay in teers were ordered to fire. front of the palace, where a pavilion had been erected in which the members of the Royal killed and 43 wounded and taken to hospital. Family, Cabinet Ministers, and civil and military authorities were waiting to welcome the President. After the usual presentations and a review of the guard of honour the King and M. Fallières drove to the palace. Later the Presi-and streets were gay with bunting and floral decorations. The reception given to the President by the crowds at the landing-stage and in foundland fisheries, pending a settlement of the the streets through which he drove was eminently respective rights of their fishermen at The Hague. sympathetic and hearty. The newspapers this morning devote articles to THE TRANSVAAL CIVIL SERVICE, the President's visit, dwelling on the traditional friendship between Sweden and France ever since the alliance of Gustavus Vasa with Francis I. and been appointed Commissioner of Police, in succesand the compact between Oxenstierna literature, and art on Swedish culture from the days of Descartes and Queen Christina to the Voltairean Court of Gustavus III. At present park. The weather was brilliant, and the squares ment of this policy. A banquet was given in the Palace this even-Cabinet Ministers, and high civil and military

M. JAURÈS AND MULAI HAFID.

PARIS, JULY 24. circles here. There were demonstrations of joy which was exerted upon Turkish bonds by the Humanité, M. Jaurès publishes an emphatic conthe work of conveying so large a body of men and rapid spread of the Young Turkey movement, it tradiction of the intelligence that appeared in horses to Quebec must have entailed much heavy arrived too late to permit of detailed discussion certain Paris evening papers yesterday reprein the evening journals. While the momentous senting him to have been in communication with the troops could only have been present at concharacter of the Sultan's decision is generally Mulai Hafid. He adds that the idea never siderable individual sacrifice. The Prince heartily recognized, considerable scepticism is expressed occurred to him that a new Embassy from Mulai congratulates you and General Otter and the

3,000 MEN DISMISSED.

SYDNEY, JULY 24.* o'clock this morning, over 3,000 men being concerned. Long lines of cars are standing empty in the principal streets. The cabmen are charging five shillings for a distance which is usually a twopenny tram ride.

employés, have now been officially dismissed. The cars have been taken to the sheds.

patrols ordered out and a mob of strikers and their friends, resulting in the arrest of 17 persons. Most of those in custody are sympathizers with Thus with both funds the country was on the safe special tribunal outside the Industrial Court and expedient of consulting the ex-Grand Viziers occurred at Elassona, Serfije, Grevena, Kozani, the men's grievances, Mr. Wade, the Premier, consisting of a non-departmental board to hear Said and Kiamil Pashas. Another cause of the and Kailar, all in South Monastir, which is known dismissal of Ferid Pasha is said to be the reported as the Province of Epirus. The Mutessarif of any such board nor consider in other aspects the appointed until December. alleged grievances until the strikers had returned appointed until December.

financial debate, vigorously rebutted the criticisms of the Opposition, who preached caution in connexion with the finances and yet supported expenditure. He said he would show that the position of the country was very much stronger than the Opposition recognized, and he would submit evidence of an attempt to weaken the financial position of the country. He quoted circulars and newspaper extracts, and denied that borrowing within the Dominion had caused tightness of money. borrowed £3,600,000 in Australia and only

Replying to the suggestion that the Dominion offered from Australia for investment in New himself entirely from the influence of the Palace because the people wanted stock below par.

30, including £768,000 brought forward, amounted that the accounts for the past year showed a deficit of £166,000, making an accumulated net deficit of £519,000. He estimated the revenue

M. FALLIÈRES'S TOUR. ARRIVAL AT STOCKHOLM.

dent, accompanied by the King, drove to Riddarholm Church and deposited a wreath on the tomb of Oscar II., and thence through the town to the Sweden's policy is to abstain from participation in any groupings of foreign Powers, and the French President's visit, it is stated, is another official demonstration of approval and encourageing to which about 200 persons were invited, including members of the Corps Diplomatique,

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

In to-day's issue of the Socialist organ, the

A tramway strike began unexpectedly at 10

All the tramway strikers, who are State Disturbances have occurred between military

In reply to a deputation from the Labour

Newcastle have also struck.

ZEALAND FINANCE.

Government during the past five years had differences of opinion among the Ministers and £1,600,000 in New Zealand.

pointed to the New South Wales loan in March. which, he said, was a huge, and absolute failure. the army. Though it is doubted whether he During the past week he had refused £380,000 possesses sufficient force of character to detach Zealand stock. In one case he refused £250.000 group, he will certainly find a strong and inde-

NATAL FINANCES. PIETERMARITZBURG, JULY 23.*

Mr. Oliff, the Natal Treasurer, in moving the the European vilayets. Budget in the Legislative Assembly to-day, said for the coming year at £3,491,000 and the On his accession in August, 1876, Abdul Hamid found expenditure at £3,690,000. It was necessary to STRIKE RIOTS AT BOMBAY.

MOB FIRED UPON BY TROOPS. BOMBAY, JULY 24, 1 25 P.M.* At most of the mills in the Parel district of Bombay the workers struck this morning. Two throughout the Empire. The old edifice in Stambul European police officers endeavoured to disperse In this connexion I may cite the rumour that called Dar-el-Funum was renovated to serve as a Parlia- a crowd numbering several thousands which was Sir Arthur Nicolson, the Ambassador, who ment House, where, on the conclusion of a short-lived throwing stones at a mill. The rioters, however, An official telegram, received this afternoon played such a prominent part in effecting the peace with Servia, the elected Deputies assembled. On turned on the officers, injuring both, and the of Dolma Baghtché and addressed them in a Speech from A detachment of British infantry arrived on the the Throne, in which, after declaring the Parliament scene and fired upon the crowd, killing one and open, he reviewed the situation and made profuse wounding six others. Several European and

FURTHER OUTBREAKS.

There were renewed outbreaks this afternoon.

At 3 o'clock the mob held up the Poons mail order to rid himself once for all of a popular institution and broke the windows. They had to be The fired upon by the military. Other outbreaks are reported from all over the mill districts. The Parel and Mahim quarters have been isolated. Rioting is still proceeding, and Europeans are being jeered and stoned.

> Between 4 and 5 o'clock this afternoon a mob attempted to wreck the Currey-road Station, where a mail train was held up. They afterwards violently attacked some native policemen in Currey-road, pelting them with stones and

> The mob in Currey-road became fanatical and

So far, five persons are known to have been 11 30 P.M.*

incident, and quiet is now restored.

NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERIES.

WASHINGTON, JULY 24.*

The evening has passed off without further

The State Department has reached an agreement with the British Foreign Office to extend the present modus vivendi regarding the New-

PRETORIA, JULY 24.* Mr. Burns-Begg, late Senior Law Officer, has

(Continued on page 8.) LATEST NEWS, 3 45 a.m.

PRINCE AND THE QUEBEC REVIEW.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.) QUEBEC, JULY 24. Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia, received this afternoon the following letter from

Sir Arthur Bigge:—

"The Prince of Wales directs me to convey to you the expression of his high appreciation of the very successful review of the Canadian Militia which his Royal Highness had the great pleasure work and careful organization, also that many of Although Ministerial changes in Turkey are as to whether the Young Turkey party will Hasid could have any interest in coming to Paris. staff upon the happy result of your efforts. The ranks his congratulations upon the smart and soldier-like bearing and steadiness on parade of the Canadian troops." NEW ZEALAND.

FINANCES OF THE DOMINION.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

WELLINGTON, JULY 25, 9 10 A.M. The Premier, replying on the financial debate, said that finance was in a strong position. The total funds available for public works last year were not utilized to the full extent, £254,000 being kept in reserve in case of necessity. In addition the consolidated revenue was maintained n a strong position with a margin of £250,000L side by £504,000. With regard to the new loan, the Premier informs me that he has accepted £70,000 at a premium of 2 per cent. He does not intend to go upon the market for the balance of the loan.

The Broken Hill tramwaymen and those at THE TURKISH GRAND VIZIER (FEOM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, JULY 24. The resignation of the Grand Vizier and the appointment of Said Pasha are believed to mark Joseph Ward, the Premier, reply-the end of the conflict among the Sultan's advisers which has persisted since the Resna outbreak, followed by a series of attacks upon officers suspected of close communication with the Palace, showed the growth of a new and dangerous spirit among all ranks of the 2nd and 3rd Army Corps. These manifestations encountered no display of force on the part of the authorities except in the despatch of 34 battalions of Redifs. who showed little enthusiasm at the prospect of attacking their mutinous comrades, the fact being that the Government was paralysed by grave

the Sultan's entourage. Said's appointment marks the definite victory of the Conciliationists over the Repressionists. should go to the London market, the Premier and is probably designed to detach the Moderates from the Extremists in the commissioned ranks of pendent colleague in Kiamil Pasha, the new The receipts for the three months ended June Foreign Minister. Said and Kiamil, having both sought the protection of the British flag, may be to £2,560,000, which exceeds the expenditure expected to pursue a more Anglophil policy than their predecessors. British diplomacy may have opportunities of supporting the general reform of the administration of the whole Empire instead of confining its efforts to effecting an improvement in the condition of sections of the population in

DEPRESSION IN CAPE COLONY. CAPE TOWN, JULY 21.*

In moving to-day that the Legislative Assembly should resolve itself into a Committee of Ways and Means to consider the taxation proposals outlined on June 30, Mr. Merriman, the Premier view of the condition of the public finances. The situation had grown much worse since his Budget speech, and he was anxious to pass the taxation measures and re-establish the Colony's credit. He foreshadowed still further taxation. including a stiffening up of the income-tax in the higher grades, and emphasized the fact that

*Through Reuter's Agency