FOREIGN OFFICE VOTE.

PERSIA AND PROJECTED RAILWAYS.

THE MEDITERRANEAN QUESTION.

In the House of Commons subjects of the moment, such as the Insurance Act, foot-andmouth disease, and the prospects of public; business, prolonged question time until 4.15' yesterday. In his replies the PRIME MINISTER be devoted mainly to Supply and finance, retirement: including the Budget Bill, which would not military penal code in consequence of the necessity the discussion of the Foreign Office Vote. law should be entrusted to a new Minister. The Belgian Minister was for a time in the For this reason, and on account of the extreme Diplomatic Gallery.

wide field, and the subjects dealt with were all of considerable though varying importance. Senator as a reward for his meritorious services. and the railway projects for that country, the Anglo-Russian Agreement, the withdrawal of influence in Teheran and might have developed In this he gained his point, but by jealously villages was paid by the Archbishop of York, a children's day from beginning to end. a railway system in the direction of India. guarding the War Office accounts from expert who went to the homes of several of the be-It might be regarded as a self-denying ordinance, for under the Agreement Russia had given up a forward policy. The unsatisfactory state of department and alienated an important section the temporary mortuary at the mine. In a department and alienated an important section the temporary mortuary at the mine. In a hrief address to the men who were assembled things in Persia would have been far worse of the Committee. The second mistake for brief address to the men who were assembled which he is criticized was his failure to follow in the colliery yard he said he should like to leave the more serious than the more serious third. Time, 14min. 36 3-5sec. (world's "record"). if the Agreement had not existed, and which he is criticized was his failure to follow which he is criticized was his failure to follow in the colliery yard he said he should like to object of their journey to the North. They forbidding officers to take part in politics, interests of the two countries and of peace.

Defending himself against a charge of incon
Defending himself against advantage. Sooner or later, however, railways would be constructed, and that would be for the good of the country; and, further, when the overland route to India should come within the region of possibilities he questioned whether it could be resisted indefinitely.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be sacrifice of Mahmud Shevket or whether it will be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may whether it could be resisted indefinitely.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the sharks whose appetite may grow en mangeant.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw other Ministers overboard to the country; and thenceforward, wherever the Luctow (Germany), time, 3min. 14-5sec., 2; Malisch (Germany), time, 3min. 14-5sec., 2; Malisch (Germany), time, 3min. 14-5sec., 3.

| April 14-5sec., 1; twill be necessary to throw oth Therefore, no objection had been raised to the The Grand Vizier telegraphed to-day to At a mass meeting of miners at Conisborough The Queen carried away with her from the formation of the Société d'Etudes that was Torgut Shevket Pasha offering him the port- yesterday afternoon a resolution of condolence glass works a little glass swan made in her to the question of the reduction of our forces of the Opposition journal Ipham. in the Mediterranean. He laid down two principles. The first was that we must not rely upon our foreign policy for the protection of the United Kingdom; in other words, we strategy did to a great extent depend upon snapped in Turkey, and that, though strategy in the Far East. That alliance had the War Minister will mark the end or only the three men which had been claimed by relatives. them as they stood over their looms. done nothing but good and had been a great beginning of the struggle between the Army He would then formally adjourn to the 23rd inst. and beneficent factor in the preservation of and the Government. peace. In spite of the instability of affairs The difficulty of judging the present outlook Mr. W. Wilson, timber merchant, of Conisborough in China and the difficult questions that had arisen there had been so far no international estimating the force of the various agencies at a member of the jury, expressed the sympathy of the people of Conisborough. There were bright patches house. complications. As to the position in the work. The movement of opposition against of this disaster was the magnificent way in which Mediterranean, he did not hesitate to say that we the Committee of Union and Progress that volunteers came and offered to go down the mine, had there now a sufficient force, or a force that could be brought there at very short notice, sufficient to meet any peril that could arise.

NAVAL STRATEGY.

Were we to abandon the Mediterranean or to Were we to abandon the Mediterranean, or to associated variously with the names of the remarkable instances of heroism. William Davis got do anything approaching to that, we could not Liberal Entente and of Colonel Sadik Bey, out of the pit safely on finishing his work, and offered make our position there secure by any diploit was then an anti-Committee movement, however skilful; but it was not necessary encouraged by Colonel Sadik's chief, Mahmud

The Coroner said he knew about one-third of the that we should have a force in the Mediter- Shevket himself. Mahmud Shevket then played men who had lost their lives, from the Chief Inspector ranean able to hold its own against all other Colonel Sadik false at the last moment and of Mines down to pit boys. fleets. A policy of abandonment would mean that we might "slip out of account" and that the diplomatic position would harden against us. We must, therefore, still be strong should eleim that the felt a puff of air and fell to the ground, where the first rescue party, and many of whose comrades were killed. He states that he felt a puff of air and fell to the ground, where the first rescue party, and many of whose comrades were killed. He states that he felt a puff of air and fell to the ground, where the first rescue party, and many of whose comrades were killed. He states that he felt a puff of air and fell to the ground, where the first rescue party, and many of whose comrades were killed. He states that he felt a puff of air and fell to the ground, where the first rescue party, and many of whose comrades were killed. He states that he felt a puff of air and fell to the ground, where the first rescue party, and many of whose comrades were killed. He states that he felt a puff of air and fell to the ground, where the first rescue party, and many of whose comrades were killed. He states that he felt a puff of air and fell to the ground, where against us. We must, therefore, still be Sadik is believed to be strong, should claim he remained with his face close to the earth while counted as one of the Mediterranean Powers, Mahmud Shevket as its first victim. Whether the blast passed over him. He then cautiously made of the reason for these resignations, though it is the German Government were excellent.

FOREIGN RELATIONS.

MR. BONAR LAW'S SPEECH.

Mr. Bonar Law, after brief references to Egypt, Turkey, the Anglo-Japanese Treaty, Empire. the understanding with Russia, and the Trans-Persian Railway, spoke, but at no great length, of our position in the Mediterranean and of Germany. It might, perhaps, be premature! to discuss the former subject, but at least it was "not at all adequate" to say simply that the Mediterranean was not to be at 11 o'clock. (pp. 10, 11, and 12)

TURKISH THE MUTINY.

RESIGNATION OF THE WAR MINISTER.

OFFICERS IN POLITICS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.) CONSTANTINOPLE, JULY 10.

Cabinet Council. His resignation has been Seventy-one bodies have been recovered, and it accepted. Hurshid Pasha, Minister of Marine, is believed that ten more are in the mine. will act temporarily as his successor.

said that the rest of the ordinary Session would Pasha gives the following explanation of him York visited the scene of the disaster and held v

The Bill which I prepared as an annexe to the called on many of the bereaved people. be postponed this year till the autumn; and which has recently become manifest for the legal he added that the House might adjourn, he interdiction of political activity on the part of mem-leaving an audience fit, but decidedly few, for feel it to be preferable that the execution of the new fatigue from which I am suffering in consequence and these were being dealt with by the manage- equally wonderful scene of popular rejoicing.

Thus closes, it may be hoped only temporarily, the political career of a soldier who, if he was warships from the Mediterranean, the measures dictator in esse or in posse that sensationwere in turn reviewed and criticized by Lord Ronaldshay, Mr. Ponsonby, Mr. G. Lloyd, Sir G. Robertson, and other speakers.

SIR E. GREY'S SPEECH.

dictator in esse or in posse that sensation-mongering publicists asserted him to be, showed every one has to mourn the loss of some relative. Signs of mourning were frequent, almost every other house having its blinds drawn. Again, as on the previous day, there were great crowds

SIR E. GREY'S SPEECH.

dictator in esse or in posse that sensation-mongering publicists asserted him to be, showed every one has to mourn the loss of some relative. Signs of mourning were frequent, almost every other house having its blinds drawn. Again, as on the previous day, there were great crowds of the Macedonian troops and the as on the previous day, there were great crowds through long streets thickly lined from the measures in Egypt mongering publicists asserted him to be, showed every one has to mourn the loss of some relative. Signs of mourning were frequent, almost every other words and the son the power of work, and a patriotism untainted by any shadow of self-interest. In the concentration of the Macedonian troops and the as on the previous day, there were great crowds through long streets thickly lined from the measures in the power of work, and a patriotism untainted by other house having its blinds drawn. Again, as on the previous day, there were great crowds through long streets thickly lined from the central to the 200 metres race four any shadow of self-interest. In the concentration of the Macedonian troops and the concentration of the Macedonian troops are relative.

FIND THE WOMAN.

A sthe result of 18 Premembers of the 200 metres race four Ameri

Defending himself against a charge of inconduring the period in which the bulk of the Army He also desired to take that opportunity of the works of the Rylands Glass and Engineering 1,500 Metres Flat Race.—Final Heat.—Jack-terms; but if we suggested such a loan we ticians was due to the opposition of the exshould certainly insist that some of the money tremists. However this may be, his fall has Bishop of Sheffield and several of the clergy coloured hand glasses and constantly as they should be spent for restoring order on the southern roads. Discussing next the Persian Railways question, he observed that if the country could remain permanently without railways this would be strategically to our large section of the Army. It remains to be large section of the district. The Archebishop has arranged to the district. The best of the district. The Archebishop has arranged to the dist railways this would be strategically to our advantage. Sooner or later, however, railways seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church, Denaby.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church.

The constructed and that would be for seen whether the Opposition will be satisfied church.

The construction of th

Railway had been carried on up to the present Pasha's name is also mentioned. The Council from the temporary mortuary in coffins which watched the conversion of huge masses of

There is reason to believe that one of the forthcoming from the miners' permanent relief of the Seamless Boat Company, the King and causes of Mahmud Shevket's resignation was fund and the colliery company. Messages of Queen saw the sides of a seamless steamboat between Sir Edward Carson and Colonel news of an anti-Government demonstration sympathy were received during the day from, being pressed and riveted. On the way from organized by the officers of the Damascus among others, Lady Scarbrough, who asked to Wakefield to Nostell Priory, where their Wallace, Secretary of the Grand Orange Lodge After a reference to the measures taken in garrison. It is also reported that a number be informed whether anything was being done Majesties lunched with Lord and Lady St. of Ulster:— Egypt to repress political crime and a eulogy of officers of the Constantinople garrison have for the bereaved. of Lord Kitchener's policy, Sir E. Grey turned | protested against the Court-martial's suspension |

THE ARMY AND THE GOVERNMENT, (FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

VIENNA, JULY 10. way. His second principle was that in other known to justify the expression of positive parts of the world foreign policy and naval opinions, but it is felt that something has each other, and as an illustration he pointed to tension may be relieved for the moment, there of five men, two of which were not identified. the influence of the Japanese Alliance on naval is nothing to show whether the retirement of Coroner said he had called the jury together that day having a force available for use in the middle his fall is voluntary or whether he has been his way out of the danger zone. jettisoned by an affrighted Committee eager he was equipped with a respiratory apparatus. question not easy to answer, nor is it possible Sir E. Grey ended amid cheers, with the to discern the part played by discontent with statement that our present relations with the War Minister's failure adequately to garrison Tripoli and by resentment of his policy towards | held at Bolton Town Hall yesterday it was resolved, the Albanians. Nothing, in fact, is certain

ANTAGONISM TO THE COMMITTEE OF UNION AND PROGRESS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Djavid Pasha, who has been appointed to last night from Belgrade. His Highness on way linked with recent developments in conto succeed Fethi Pasha in the command at arrival was met by M. Grouitch, the Servian maintain in that sea a naval force strong Monastir, entered upon his duties to-day. The Chargé d'Affaires. enough to overcome any probable combination situation at Monastir is unchanged, but trustenough to overcome any probable combination situation at Monastir is unchanged, but trustagainst us. As regards Germany, with whom worthy information shows that a spirit of we had no quarrel, perhaps nothing was gained by incessant talk of the necessity of a good Union and Drawner is to the Committee of by incessant talk of the necessity of a good Union and Drawner is unchanged, but trustthe King of Servia's brother, and was born in large number of societies and associations in by incessant talk of the necessity of a good Union and Progress is apparent among the by incessant talk of the necessity of a good Union and Progress is apparent among the understanding with her. Germany's greatest troops at Uskub and in Fadil Pasha's Albanian interest. like our own, was peace. Still, though army. The Uskub company of the Mountain autumn. In the meantime he will study under special claim on public confidence. Those who vedreme and Eadle present. we had no land frontier across which the sentries Artillery categorically refused to set out in the care of an English tutor. of rival nations faced each other with loaded pursuit of a body of rebels which appeared in rifles, we had to adapt ourselves and our policy | that district, while orders to renew the attack to the altered circumstances of the day. These on Isa Boletinatz remain unexecuted because circumstances had brought about the Triple of the refusal of the troops to fight against Entente, which was not a party policy but a co-religionists. This is direct confirmation of national policy, and would be supported by the the report that at the recent Albanian reunion Opposition if and when they returned to power. at Kalise between Tosks and Ghegs it was The debate stood adjourned a little later decided to propagate similar ideas among the of the dogs—arrived at Plymouth yesterday in the on the occasion of the Garden Party at Windsor P. Shattesbury-avenue.

DISASTER. PIT LHE

DEATH-ROLL INCREASED TO EIGHTY-ONE.

THE PROBABLE CAUSE.

It is now feared that 81 lives were lost in the The Minister of War resigned at last night's accidents at the Cadeby Pit on Tuesday.

a short service at the pit-head. He afterwards

EXPLORATION WORK SUSPENDED.

more in the interests of Russia than in ours. Army, the great improvements in which were This accident caused the authorities to abandon confronted in the Town Hall Square with three sistency, he said he had always been opposed officers, including many members of Mahmud expressing his deep admiration for the men Company. Passing beneath a glass arch 18ft. son (Great Britain), 1; Kiviat (America), 2; Taber to the despatch of an expedition to Southern Shevket's own Staff, were active members of who, at the risk of their own lives, went down high, they entered the glass house and watched (America), 3.

Won by tw of which mention had been made, he could not His supporters have, indeed, declared that and heroic work, and it was sad to know that moulded, and blown into bottles and other see how it could be arranged on attractive the failure to purge the Army of officer-poliso many of those heroes perished in their desire articles. Some of the blazing furnaces could be arranged on attractive the failure to purge the Army of officer-poliso many of those heroes perished in their desire articles. Some of the blazing furnaces could be arranged on attractive the failure to purge the Army of officer-poliso many of those heroes perished in their desire articles.

and two other men are still lying in the Fuller- little bunch of pink carnations, and attached In view of the approaching celebrations of the ton Hospital, Denaby. Mr. Bury's condition to the flowers was a picture post-card photo- 12th of July, it is of supreme importance that every A DELPHI THEATRE. was critical during Tuesday night, but there graph of two small girls, the donors, while care should be taken that the Lodges and other are now hopes of his recovery. The other two on the back of the card was written, "With persons taking part in the celebrations should assist

The funeral of Mr. Pickering has been fixed | Mabel."

INSTANCES OF HEROISM.

Another of the rescuers owes his life to the fact that upon the motion of Sir Charles Behrens, that, subject satisfied with the work done by the Associaexcept the downfall of the man who has been guineas should be applied at once to the relief of the regarded for more than three years as the pivot sufferers in the Cadeby accident. The the military situation in the Ottoman disaster in December, 1910, involved the loss of in 344 lives, and a national relief fund was raised.

HELP FROM HULTON FUND.

A SERVIAN PRINCE IN ENGLAND.

Prince Paul Kara-Georgevitch, nephew of the King of Servia, arrived at Charing-cross suppose that these resignations are in any CAPTAIN SCOTT'S EXPEDITION.

Two members of Captain Scott's South Polar! Expedition-Mr. B. C. Day, who had charge of the

THEIR MAJESTIES' TOUR.

YORKSHIRE CHILDREN'S WELCOME.

VISIT TO A GLASS FACTORY.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

At Barnsley, for instance, where 8,000 school children cheered their Majesties and the Market- by Macdonald (America) with a put of 50ft. Yesterday was a day of gloom in the mining place, the scene of the civic welcome, was 4in., Rose (America) being second. SIR E. GREY'S SPEECH.

The Secretary of State for Forkign Afrairs, in a lucid and weighty speech, covered all the points to which attention had been any organized opposition to contend with the Anglo-Russian called. He dealt first with the Anglo-Russian the Course of the Supreme Military Council and at the Ministry of War for the reorganization of the Nacedonian troops and the occupation of Constantinople after the mutiny of sorrowing people in the neighbourhood of the morning, with the neighbourhood of the pit they contend with delighted spectators, while beneath the lofty Cathedral spire was another explosion in the morning, but it brought no serious consequences with it. Two men were affected by the gas, but on being Dewsbury, where, after passing through equally as on the previous day, there were great crowds of the neighbourhood of the mining that the coloured flags and singing their loudest. And Wakefield was almost surpassed by Ministry of War for the reorganization of the Dewsbury, where, after passing through equally as on the previous day, there were great crowds the converted through long streets thickly lined from with delighted spectators, while beneath the lofty Cathedral spire was another explosion in the morning, but it brought no serious consequences with it. Two men were affected by the gas, but on being Dewsbury, where, after passing through equally as on the Supreme Military Council and at the Dewsbury, where, after passing through equally as on the previous day, there were great crowds the delighted spectators, with the delighted spectators, with the lofty Cathedral spire was another explosion in the morning, but to the neighbourhood of the mining of conveying his approval of the selection of sorrowing people in the neighbourhood of the mining of sorrowing people in the neighbourhood of the mining of conveying his approval of the selection of sorrowing people in the neighbourhood of the mining of sorrowing people in the neighbourhood of the mining of conveying his approval of the selection their contention being that the Agreement was a one-sided affair from which we benefited.

The critics assert that he made two great mistakes during his tenure of office. The first was charming, but everywhere the younger of this, the converse of this the converse of the converse The fact was that but for the Agreement was his quarrel with Djavid Bey with regard was at once carried out.

Russia might have exercised still greater to the control of details of military expenditure.

During the afternoon a visit to the afflicted part in the celebrations, and it was in a sense

AN ARCH OF GLASS.

If the popular side of the Royal visit is be- G. W. Hutson (Great Britain), 3.

to consider the question of the Trans-Persian folio of War. The General refused. Army was passed and admiration of the work done presence, while the King received a glass Teddy | Kahanamoku (America), time lmin. 3 2-5sec., 1; | Railway from an economic and commercial point of view. He gave an assurance that the country would not be committed to a guarantee point of the appointment either of Abdallah country would not be committed to a guarantee point of the appointment either of Abdallah country would not be committed to a guarantee point of the appointment either of Abdallah country would not be committed to a guarantee point of the appointment either of Abdallah country would not be committed to a guarantee point of the appointment either of Abdallah country was earlied returning thanks to the where the Mayor and Mayoress met the property of the forces in Spyrma point of the work done presence, while the King received a glass Teddy by the various parties was expressed. Another Bear. After passing the Wakefield boundary, lime lmin. 14 6-10sec., 2; Huszagh (America), time lmin. 15 6-10sec., 3.

Fexcing.

Freeded, at $1.5, by THE POETASTERS OF THE POETASTERS country would not be committed to a guarantee without the consent of the House.

The negotiations respecting the Baghdad Tripoli, to fill the vacancy, although Nazim

Designate the appointment entire of Abdance in Smyrna, or of Ibrahim Pasha, an ex-commandant in Tripoli, to fill the vacancy, although Nazim

During the afternoon the bodies were removed of Messrs. G. Cradock and Sons. Here they Reder. with Turkey alone; but directly German inof Ministers, which is still sitting, has been had arrived a few hours earlier. Large crowds glowing steel into thin coils of wire. Next terests were affected there would be complete in constant telegraphic communication with watched the long procession of hearses, and they inspected the Fuel Economizer Works of watched the long procession of hearses, and son where at the King's Hadi Pasha, Chief of the General Staff, a relief fund has been started, and it is believed request Sir Edward Green proclaimed) a halfshould be an understanding between us and cousin of Mahmud Shevket Pasha, has resigned. that whatever assistance is necessary will be holiday for his men. Lastly, on the premises Oswald, an unconventional present was thrown Mr. Bury, the general manager of the colliery, into the Royal car for the Queen. It was a love from Annie" and "With love from their leaders in preventing disturbances or breaches

Messrs. P. and J. Stubley watched the manu- proposals, and I am also conscious of the great profacture of the woollen cloth for which the vocation and indignation caused by the recent Mr. Frank Allen, Coroner for the Doncaster district, West Riding is famous. They spent some conduct of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. the opened an inquiry yesterday afternoon on the bodies time in the Cardigan spinning, weaving, and desire, however, to point out, and feel certain you The finishing departments, and the Queen delighted will agree, that self-control and discipline and the 5.15 FANNY'S some of the women workers by chatting with preservation of the peace are essential at the present at Brighouse, from which the King and Queen apprehension and disastrous consequences. returned by special train to Wentworth-Woodto-morrow afternoon at 3.40 from Yorkshire.

PREVENTION OF CONSUMPTION.

Lord Derby (President), the Duke of Devonshire (Vice-President), and Mr. Waldorf Astor, M.P. (hon. treasurer), Dr. Jane Walker, Dr. Arthur Latham, and Mr. C. H. Garland (mem- disturbance on the 12th July.

expected that one will shortly be made. Lord Derby's father was the first President of the Association, and the other officers and members who have now resigned have also taken a keen interest in the subject of tuberculosis and At a meeting of the Hulton Colliery Disaster Fund its prevention. It is understood that for a considerable time past they have been distion, feeling that it has been inadequate, that Hulton the Association has not been sufficiently active enlisting public support, and has failed to take advantage opportunities. Especially at the present moment, when mind is occupied with the subject of consump-

> It should be mentioned, in case any may nexion with the Insurance Act, that this is not the case. The name of the association for the whose operations they are dissatisfied. They MATINEE TO-DAY and EVERY THURS, and SAT., at 2.30. have been very reluctant to take this course, but felt at last that there was no alternative.

The debate stood adjourned a little later, decided to propagate similar ideas among the Ruahine, of the New Zealand Shipping Company. Castle on the 18th instant the State Apartments will be closed to the public.

OLYMPIC GAMES. THE

ANOTHER BRITISH VICTORY.

A NEW WORLD'S RECORD.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

STOCKHOLM, JULY 10. The Stadium to-day was the scene of two grand and most dramatic races.

In the 1,500 metres race, generally considered There was another slight explosion yesterday, of the West Riding, travelled to-day a distance formance in yesterday's heat, and, although In the letter of resignation which he has and the authorities decided to suspend the work addressed to the Grand Vizier Mahmud Shevket of exploration for a time. The Archbishop of Dark and their reception by the people at one point obliged to lose yards by dropping of exploration for a time. The Archbishop of Dark to come round outside was beautifully.

On the West Riding, travelled to-day a distance of the Wes of 46 miles, and their reception by the people at one point obliged to lose yards by dropping was even more strikingly enthusiastic than back to come round outside, won beautifully 6s.: Amphitheatre Circle, 4s., and (Unreserved)2s. 6d.: Gallery, 1s. BOX-OFFICE OPEN 10—10. Telephone, Holborn 6840. Their Majesties set out to make an informal the magnificent time of 3min. 56 4-5sec. In the 5,000 metres race H. Kohlemainen (Finland)

HAYMARKET THEATRE.

Tol... Ger. 3344.

Lessee and Manager—FREDERICK HARRISON.

TO-DAY, at 3. and TO-NIGHT, at 9.

By arrangement with Mr. CYRIL MAUDE. that which was given to them yesterday. by two yards from a bunch of Americans in In the House of Commons yesterday the has developed into a Royal progress upon a and J. Bouin (France), both mentioned in my In the House of Commons yesterday the has developed into a Royal progress upon a land J. Boum (France), both mentioned in my great scale. In a long experience of State telegram of yesterday, went away from the field at an extraordinary page, the former of the former o hoped, on August 2 or 3 to meet again in the first week of October. Curiosity being thus satisfied the crowded House thinned down.

The pointed activity of the provided by the first week of October. Curiosity being thus satisfied the crowded House thinned down.

The pointed activity of the provided by the first week of October. Curiosity being thus satisfied the crowded House thinned down.

The pointed activity of the provided by the first week of October. Curiosity being thus satisfied the crowded House thinned down.

The pointed activity of the provided by the first week of October. Curiosity being thus satisfied the crowded House thinned down.

The pointed activity of the first week of October. Curiosity being thus visits and ceremonies I have never before seen more striking demonstrations of loyalty astonishing time of 14min. 36 3-5sec., beating astonishing time of 14min. 36 3-5sec., beating astonishing time of 14min. points to the possibility that the explosions and affection to the Royal House than I have by nearly half-a-minute the world's record St. JAMES'S. were due to an underground fire. There were seen repeatedly to-day. No sooner was one of 15min. 5sec. made by Bouin in his heat D indications of spontaneous heating near the face town left behind ablaze with enthusiasm than yesterday. Meanwhile, a long way behind, of the district affected on Saturday morning, their Majesties found themselves in another the rest of the field were having a tremendous RELLA DONNA. The debate necessarily ranged over a very of the great recent stress of work, I tender you my ment during the week-end. Mr. McKenna to excel one another in their welcome to the Bonhag (America). No more thrilling and struggle for third place, and again G. W. Hutson GEORGE ALEXANDER

232ND TIME TO NIGHT:

(Great Britain) just man be foot from GEORGE ALEXANDER also announced that a special inquiry would be King and Queen, and as the tour continued certainly no faster race for this distance has each appeared to have succeeded in its ever been run, for not only the full distance ambition until the next place was reached. but several intermediate records were broken. The Weight-Putting competition was won ARRICK.

RESULTS.

PUTTING THE WEIGHT.—r. Diacidonali (America), 15.34 metres, 1; R. W. Rose (America), 15.25 metres, THE BEAR LEADERS.

MISS COMPTON and Mr. EDMUND GWENN; METRES FLAT RACE.—Final Heat.—H. Kolchmainen (Finland), 1; J. Bouin (France), 2;

Won by two yards. Time, 3min. 56 4-5sec.

TEAM COMPETITION.—Norway, 22.85 points, 1;

THE BOYNE CELEBRATIONS.

SIR EDWARD CARSON'S ADVICE.

House of Commons, London, July 9. My dear Col. Wallace, ought always to have a sufficient margin of strength in home waters. Without this foreign representatives to attend. A memorial service will be held at Doncaster parish church on through the heavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster, and the beavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster, and the beavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster, and the beavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster, and the beavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster, and the beavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster, and the beavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster to resist such a sufficient margin of representatives to attend. A memorial service will be held at Doncaster parish church on through the heavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster, and the beavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster, and the beavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster to resist such a sufficient margin of representatives to attend. A memorial service will be held at Doncaster parish church on through the heavy woollen district of which a Home Rule Bill upon the people of Ulster, and the Box-office open daily 10 to 10. time, and that any rioting or disturbance, which are The day's tour ended shortly before 6 o'clock at all times to be deprecated, can only lead to mis- NEW THEATRE.

Our friends may rest perfectly well satisfied that when the proper time comes all necessary steps with MRS. DANE'S DEFENCE. proper organization will be taken to assert our SIR CHARLES WYNDHAM

By Henry Arthur Jones, SIR CHARLES WYNDHAM The King and Queen will arrive at St. Pancras position and safeguard our interests. Sincerely yours, EDWARD CARSON. Old Town Hall, Belfast, July 10.

My dear Sir Edward, I am much obliged for your letter, which I am communicating to our people through the usual channel. I feel quite sure that the Orangemen of Ulster will have no hand or part in provoking any > Very sincerely yours, ROBERT H. WALLACE, Secretary, Provincial Grand Orange Lodge of Ulster.

PRECAUTIONS IN BELFAST. (FBOM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

BELFAST, JULY 10. There were no disturbances of any kind to-day, and the police now believe that there will be no further outbreak.

A meeting of the Vigilance Committee appointed by the Roman Catholic clergymen and laymen on by the Roman Catholic cicrgymen and laymen on Sunday last was held in private last night to consider the reply of the Government to the request for police MATINEE EVERY WEDNESDAY, at 2. Tel., 6666, 6867 Ger. of work at the shipbuilding yards. No report of the proceedings was given to the Press, but it is under
Charlotte-street. W. KINEMACOLOR, i stood that the Government promised to consult the public | Commissioner of Police in Belfast, and if he considered troops necessary to protect the workmen or to preserve the peace an adequate force would be ready

"CONCERTS" and "VARIETIES" will be found on page 1.

THEATRES, &c.

Box-office (Ger. 3855). 10 to 10. Dean-street. Shaftesbury-avenue. now resign do not feel justified in continuing to lend their names to a body thus entitled with M. By ARNOLD BENNEYT and EDWARD KNOBLAUCH.

> WYNDHAM'S THEATRE. TO-NIGHT, at 8.40. JELF'S."
>
> GERALD du MAURIER and Company in a New Comedy
>
> "JELF'S." MATINEE EVERY WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY, at 2.40.

THEATRES, &c. (continued). T ONDON OPERA HOUSE, KINGSWAY.

LAST WEEK OF SUMMER SEASON. TO-NIGHT, at 8.15.

THE TALES OF HOFFMANN (in French): Miles. Berthe Cesar, Victoria Fer. Yvonne Kerlord, De Leeuw: MML Jean Buysson, Vilmos Beck, Verheyden, Enzo Bozano, Ebbeler, De Grazia, Leroux, Landel, Altschuler, Deshayes, &c. Conductor, M. Gaetano Merola. SHEFFIELD, JULY 10.

The King and Queen, continuing their tour the West Riding, travelled to-day a distance of the West Riding

THREE MATINEES WEEKLY.
Every Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday, at 2.30.

TO-NIGHT and EVERY EVENING, at 8.15.

A New Play entitled

Box-office Telephone, Gerrard 9513. FIND THE WOMAN.

TO-NIGHT, at 9. (by arrangement with FRANK CURZON)

A New Play in 3 acts. By Anthony P. Wharton. Preceded, at 8.20, by "Little Red Shoes."
a play in one act, by Harold Brighouse. MATINEE EVERY WED. & SAT. (both plays), at 2.20. ATHLETICS.

Sole Lessee. Mr Arthur Chudleigh.

TO-NIGHT and EVERY EVENING, at 8.30,
an Original Farcical Comedy in Four Acts, by R. C. CARTON

"THE FUNNIEST PLAY IN LONDON. ONE LAUGH FROM START TO FINISH."

THE BRILLIANT STAR COMPANY PHYLLIS NEILSON-TERRY, PAULINE CHASE, and MARIE LOHR, WEEDON GROSSMITH and ELLIS JEFFREYS, DION BOUCICAULT, GODFREY TEARLE, and others, 100 METRES (FREE STYLE) RACE.—Final Heat.— CRITERION THEATRE. Phone, Ger. 3844.

Charles Wyndham and Miss Mary Moore.

Preceded, at 8.15, by THE POETASTERS OF ISPAHAN.
MATINEES TO-DAY and EVERY THURS, and SAT., at 2.30: EPÉE TEAM COMPETITION.—Final Pool.—Belgium 1; Great Britain, 2; Holland, 3; Sweden, 4.— Henry Lowenfeld. Sole Proprietor. Tom B. Davis, Sole Lessee and Manager. LOUIS MEYER'S Production.

THE GLAD EYE. EVERY EVENING. at 8.45.
Preceded, at 8.15, by THE APOLLO TATLERS.
MATINEE EVERY WEDNESDAY, at 2.15.
Box-office 10 to 10. 'Phone Ger. 3243. TO-NIGHT, at 8.15. Mr. GEORGE EDWARDES' NEW Production,

In three acts, by A. M. Willner and Robert Bodanzky.
English Libretto by Basil Hood: Lyrics by Adrian Ross.
Music by FRANZ LEHAR. MATINEE EVERY SATURDAY, at 2. Box-office (Mr. H. W. Anderson), 10 to 10. Tel., 201, 202 Ger.

EVERY EVENING, at 8.15, Mr. GEORGE EDWARDES' New Production, A UTUMN MANŒUVRES.

NIGHTLY, at 8.30. MATS. Weds. and Sats., at 2.30; Tel. 2473 Gerrard. TO-NIGHT, at 8.30 (doors open at 8).
LAST 3 PERFORMANCES.

and Miss MARY MOORE. VAUDEVILLE.,
Under the Management of Messas. A. and S. Gatti.
NIGHTLY, at 8.30. MATINEE SAT., at 3.
CHARLES KENYON presents PUTHERFORD AND SON.

By K. C. Sowerby.

NORMAN MCKINNEL. LAST 3 NIGHTS

EDYTH OLIVE. Box-office, 10 to 10. AGNES THOMAS. CLOBE.

Sole Lessee and Manager. CHARLES FROHMAN.
TO-NIGHT, at 8.15 (Last Weeks). CHARLES FROHMAN presents
KLAW and ERLANGER'S Musical Comedy production.
Book and Lyrics by C. M. S. McLellan. Music by Ivan Caryll.
MATINEE EVERY WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY, at 2.15.

COURT THEATRE. Sloane-square.
IRISH PLAYS FROM ABBEY THEATRE, DUBLIN. THE COUNTESS CATHLEEN (first production in London), by THE BUILDING FUND, by William Boyle.
Evenings, at 8.30. MATINEE SATURDAY, at 2.30.

LYCEUM.

NIGHTLY, at 7.45. MATS, WED, and SAT., at 2.50.

New Romantic Play, by Arthur Shirley and Ben Landeck. Produced by Walter and Fredk. Melville. Prices, 5s. to 6d, 7617 Gerr TWICE DAILY. at 2.30 and 8.

Nothing can compare " WITH OUR in grandeur and II ING AND QUEEN magnificence with THROUGH INDIA."

these Wonderful Pictures. SPECIAL NOTICE.

Commencing Monday next

TWO DISTINCT PROGRAMMES DAILY.

Prices:—Reserved. £3 3s. to 2s.; unreserved. 1s. 6d. to 6d. Children under 12 half-price to reserved scats Matinées only.

Box-office 10 to 10.

Telephone Gerrard 1444.

ROYAL OPERA, COVENT GARDEN. Proprietors. The Grand Opera Syndicate (Ltd.). THIS DAY, at 2.30, THE RUSSIAN BALLET, LES SYL-PHIDES. NARCISSE, SCHEHERAZADE: Mmes. Karsavina, Piltz, Astafieva; MM. Ni insky, Vladimiroff, and Bolin. Conductors, M. Tcherepnin and Mr. Thomas Beecham.

THIS EVENING, at 8.15. IL BARBIERE DI SIVIGLIA (in Italian): Mines, Tetrazzini and Berat; MM. McCermack, Marcoux, Malatesta, Sampieri, Zucchi, and Sammarco, Conductor, Signor

Shaftesbury-avenue, W.C. NIGHTLY, at 7.45. MATS.
WED, and SAT., at 2.30. BEN-MY-CHREE (Girl of my Heart).
By Hall Caine and Wilson Barrett. Presented and Produced by Walter and Fredk. Melville. Prices. 6d. to 5s. Thone, 5983 Gerr.

TICKETS for all THEATRES, CONCERTS, &2.
OFFICES in all parts of London, at the principal London RailWalter and Fredk. Melville. Prices. 6d. to 5s. Thone, 5983 Gerr.
Telephone Gerrard 1023. Telegrams, "Opponents, London,"